$19,500 Worth Of Antique Chinese Paintings Given To College By John Hampshire

John H. Hampshire, Baltimore contractor and collector of rare Oriental art objects, has given Gettysburg College a collection of antique Chinese paintings and porcelains appraised at $19,500, according to an announcement today by Dr. Willard S. Paul, college president.

Hampshire since January, 1959, has given the college oriental art treasures appraised at more than $50,000, including the "Hampshire collection," the ivory, jade and porcelain items and the paintings are used in Oriental art appreciation classes.

F. Stanley Hoffman, business manager, and Dr. Frank H. Kramer, a retired professor who, in connection with his hobby, has been teaching Gettysburg's Oriental art course for more than ten years, accepted the gift in Baltimore on behalf of the college.

KRAMER GIVES COLLECTION
Last month Dr. Kramer turned over his personal Oriental art collection to the college. His Chinese jades are conservatively valued at more than $100,000.

Hampshire says he has reached the point in life where he wishes to share his art treasures with others, particularly colleges. He praised Gettysburg College for its "deep appreciation of Chinese culture." He heads John H. Hampshire Inc., with offices in five cities.

Two paintings are included in the recent gift. One, described as an "incomparable masterpiece" and depicting an imperial hunting scene, was produced by realist artist Chu Chuan during the reign of Emperor Chia Ching 1796-1820. The "extremely rare" nine-by-four foot work is done in color ink on fine silk. It is "one of the best imperial scenes ever portrayed," Hampshire said.

With the hunting scene, Hampshire gave a companion piece, a self-portrait of the Mandarin artist Chu Chuan in color ink on pale blue Hsuan paper. The two paintings are appraised at $12,000. Hampshire also gave Gettysburg College four porcelains valued at $7,500. They are a deep dish of the K'ang Hsi period (prior to 1677), a matched pair of Wu Ts'ai wedding vases of the same period, and a large ceremonial jar of the Sung period. (1960-1279).

THANKSGIVING IS THEME FOR ROTARY TALK

"The best and natural expression of gratitude is an outflow of generosity," Rev. Dr. Robert W. Koons, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church here, said in a "Thanksgiving Day" talk at Monday evening's session of Rotary at the YWCA.

"We are grateful to those on whom we are dependent. If a man saves our life, we express gratitude. If he gives a gift, we express our thanks."

"We all like to feel that we are to a measure independent, and all of us do have some competence. But even for that we are dependent on God."

"In these days of great technology we are inclined to feel more independent. But we remain dependent. The very air we breathe is dependent upon an order we did not originate and which we cannot perpetuate. So our very life is dependent upon God."

"And God has given us not only the necessities but so many extras. God could have made all things drab, or the human eye could be so designed that we could see only the grays. All birds could have the voice of the crow. But God has given us extras for our enjoyment."

"So we should give thanks. We can show our gratitude by individual prayer, by coming together with others in services, by responsible use of what is given us, by responsible use of what is given us, by proper acceptance of our gifts and by giving and sharing that which we receive."

The speaker was introduced by Dr. Harold Dunkelberger. C. William Harbaugh led group singing accompanied at the piano by Dr. Kenneth Smoke. President William Lentz presided with 50 present.

H. WAYBRIGHT WILL RECEIVE REGION AWARD

Horace H. Waybright, Gettysburg R. 2, has been presented with the Region Three Outstanding Young Farmer Award, it was announced today.

The local man, who was among the few Adams countians to win the American Farmer award for his work while a farm student in high school and during the two-year period afterward, will receive the new honor as Outstanding Young Farmer in 13 south central counties at the annual state convention of the Pennsylvania Young Farmers' Association November 30 at Pennsylvania State University.

H. H. WAYBRIGHT

ceive the new honor as Outstanding Young Farmer in 13 south central counties at the annual state convention of the Pennsylvania Young Farmers' Association November 30 at Pennsylvania State University.

The award is based on "improved farming practices used in business, farm mechanic ability and use of labor saving devices, community activities and Young Farmer activities."

A one-third partner in C. J. Waybright and Sons since 1946 he assists in operation of a 730-acre farm whose major enterprises are dairy cattle, beef cattle, alfalfa hay and corn, and has been foremost in improving soil conservation and fertilization practices on the farm. The farm operation has a well equipped farm shop and makes extensive use of grain and forage conveyors. Recent construction at the farm includes a 200-dairy cow feeding barn and a six-wagon hay and grain drying shed. According to the report on which the award was based, 80 per cent of the farm building improvements have been made by Horace and his brother, Richard Waybright.

Community service listed for the local young farmer includes being a member of the Dairy and Crops County Extension Committee, member of the National-wide County Proposal Committee, a member of the St. James Lutheran Church Council, assistant superintendent of the senior department of St. James Sunday School, Sunday School teacher and member of Good Samaritan Lodge of the Masons. As a member of the local Young Farmers' Association he has served as vice president and chairman of Farm-City Day, program committee, contest committee, attendance committee and as public relations director.

Generosity Awees Victims Of Fire

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fowler and children, burned out of their home along the Mummusburg Rd. last week, are re-located in a new home on Gettysburg R. 1, near Fantasyland where Fowler is employed, and "utterly astounded" by the generosity of the people of the area.

Fowler said today that "practically all of our needs" were met by the donations made to the family of clothing, furnishings, etc. Noting "we are more than grateful, we never realized people could be so wonderful," Fowler said the gift that amazed him most was a "roll of bills. A man came to me and shoved a roll of bills in my hand. I asked his name, but he refused to tell me and left hurriedly. I found he had given me $200."

GIFT TO RED CROSS

The Red Cross announced a donation of $5 from an anonymous donor toward the cost of providing Thanksgiving dinners for four families who appealed for help.

WIN DANCE CONTEST

Jean Kay Drake and Will Miller, York Springs, won the "Mineola Swing" dance contest for the month of October at the Arcadia Roller Rink, Arcadia, Md.

Eddie J. Leister, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Leister, Hanover R. 4, and Miss Doris M. Fisher, daughter of Mrs. Matilda C. and the late Lloyd S. Fisher, Abbottstown R. 1.

Richard Shetter, Orrtanna R. 1, and Miss Sandra Hestebaum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris J. Kestebaum, 47 Chambersburg St.

Joseph E. Poist, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Poist, Hanover R. 5, and Miss Rosalie J. Klunk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Klunk, 15 N. Peters St., New Oxford.

ADAMS MAY BE ON HONOR ROLL IN DHIA WORK

Adams County "may be among the top 10" when the milk production averages are tabulated by the state DHIA, Associate County Farm Agent John D. Naugle told approximately 80 gathered Monday evening in the dining hall at St. James Lutheran Church, York St., for the annual banquet of the Adams County Dairy Herd Association.

Naugle said: "Each year our herds have averaged a little higher. Last year for the first time they surpassed the state average. This year we are way ahead. Only preliminary reports are available but it looks like our county might for the first time be among the top 10 in the state this year. If we aren't, we'll be close and if we don't make it this year, if we continue to increase production as we have, we will be on that honor roll next year."

"Let's compare our record for this year with that of five years ago. Our cows have increased their production, on an average, by 1,500 pounds of milk per cow. The butterfat increase has been 80 pounds per cow. And we are making $89 per cow more than we were five years ago. Five years ago our cows averaged 9,280 pounds of milk and 354 pounds of butterfat. The value of the product over feed costs averaged $221. Our record this year was 10,795 pounds of milk per cow plus 434 pounds of butterfat and the value of product over feed costs was $310.

"You have been doing a good job, and this year you have had two new tools. The forage analysis program now helps you check the nutritional content of your fodder so you will know exactly what to feed as a supplement to the fodder. And the DHIA workshops are helping you to analyze your records so you will know how to feed, breed and weed. The next workshop will be held December 15."

UNICEF GETS $1,205.51 IN EFFORT HERE

Adams County school children—plus a few adults—raised $1,205.51 to help children overseas through the "Trick or Treat for UNICEF" program held over the Halloween period.

Mrs. Robert A. Codori, chairman, termed the drive "the most successful so far" and said approximately 1,200 children were involved in the campaign. The children as part of their "Halloween" carried containers to ask donations for the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund. The money raised locally will be turned over to UNICEF and will be distributed as needed throughout the world. Each government accepting the aid is required to match all contributions made by UNICEF. Most of the funds raised by children goes for inoculations against disease for youngsters in foreign lands for milk and other foods for malnourished children.

MANY HELPED
Mrs. Codori thanked Douglas Houston and Mrs. Roy W. Gifford, vice president of the county organization, for their work in outlining the UNICEF program to local service organizations and over WGET.

Troop 7 Observes 28th Anniversary

28TH BIRTHDAY OF GIRL SCOUT TROOP 7 NOTED

The 28th anniversary of Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 7 was observed Monday evening at a Founders' Day celebration held by the troop in the Scout room at St. Francis Xavier church.

Mrs. George F. Eberhart, who was a founder of the troop and remained active for a long time and currently is a member of the committee, was presented with a certificate of appreciation.

Also commended was Mrs. Romeo M. Capozzi, one of the leaders, who has been associated with the troop for 22 years.

Mrs. M. Hardy Nichols, council assistant, showed movies of the birthplace of Juliette Low, founder of Girl Scouting in the U.S., and showed slides of Camp Happy Valley.

Families of troop members were guests for the program at which 70 attended. A tea was served by the troop committee. Mrs. Jay P. Brown and Mrs. Capozzi, the troop leaders, presided at the special meeting.

MRS. EBERHART SPEAKS
Mrs. Eberhart spoke as follows: "It is an honor to address you on this Founders' Day, marking the 100th anniversary of the founder of Girl Scouting, Juliette Low, who was born in Savannah, Ga., in 1860.

"It also marks the anniversary of the founding of our Catholic Girl Scout Troop, 28 years ago, at the suggestion of our late Father Stock, who knew of Girl Scouting in other parishes and decided we should have a Girl Scout troop. At that time there was one inactive troop in Gettysburg. There was no county organization and we were considered a 'loose troop.'

"We were Troop 2 and shortly after our troop was established, Troop 1 became active. For several years there were only two troops in Gettysburg. Our first years were interesting, as we had (Continued On Page 3)

PROGRAM AT HIGH SCHOOL ON WEDNESDAY

The annual Thanksgiving program to be presented by the students of the Gettysburg Junior-Senior High School will be held on Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. The public is invited to attend.

The Senior Choir and the Ninth Grade Glee Club will begin the program with the singing of "Now Thank We All Our God." The combined choir will join to sing "Thanks Be to Thee" and "Let All Things Now Living." The remainder of the songs "O Sing Unto the Lord a New Song," "Land of Hope and Glory," "On the First Thanksgiving Day," "This Is My Country," "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "Light of Liberty" will be sung by the Senior Choir. The accompanists for the glee club are Jane Eiker and Julie Fredt. Brenda Minter, Sharon Nett, Cathy Roth and Cynthia Rosenberger will accompany the Senior Choir directed by Paul W. Grove.

Narrating the program will be Larry Kujovich. Those students who will participate in the tableau settings are: King, Terry (Continued On Page 2)

NOWICKI IS BD. CHAIRMAN FOR CANNERS

The Pennsylvania Canners Association in its business session Monday at the Hotel Yorktowne, York, established a new officer—chairman of the board—and elected an Adams County canning official to the new office.

Col Edward J. Nowicki Jr., director of production and purchasing of Knouse Foods Co-operative, Peach Glen, and commandant of the U.S. Army Reserve Schools in Harrisburg and Lancaster, was named to the new office. Previous to his election Col. Nowicki completed four years as vice president of fruits of the state association.

A resident of Gettysburg, the new chairman was graduated from Gettysburg College, where he was active in athletics, and was an honor graduate of the Reserve Officers Training Corps.

College Vacation Includes Monday

Gettysburg College will begin the Thanksgiving holiday Wednesday at noon and classes will resume next Tuesday morning. It was announced to the student body Monday that next Monday will be a part of the holiday.

It was the extra day of vacation for which the student body staged an uptown demonstration last Thursday evening.

COUNCIL, REC BOARD SETTLE DIFFERENCES

Two minor disputes between the borough council and the recreation board were resolved at a meeting Monday night in the rec office in the high school.

Councilmen Richard Smith and Atty. John Thrush, representing council, attended the session and cited the problems which were settled:

The rec board will not pay $22 a month to maintain electrical current into the kitchen at the rec field during the winter months when it is not in use; a separate line and meter will be run to the kitchen which will be assigned to the borough.

H. Edgar Riegle, superintendent of schools, resolved the second differences when he read a state school law which authorizes the employment of a part-time policeman for service at schools. Council had raised the question of who was to pay for the uniform and the salary. The state law clarifies it and the rec board was acting within the law in engaging the officer, it was revealed.

Thrush said he will recommend that council appoint a representative to attend rec board meetings.

DIRECTOR REPORTS

Lee Raffensperger, rec director, said 92 had enrolled in the junior bowling league which will open Saturday. He said plans for a senior league were dropped because of lack of interest. He reported that he had not received requests for an archery program. He said he may attempt to revive interest later in the year. The adult basketball league, he reported, may get underway December 28. Five teams have been organized and he is seeking a sixth from the school district.

Attendance at the Saturday night dances is good, he said. Last week there were over 300 teen-agers attending.

He reported that ladies night activities will begin November 30 with Betsy Wenger in charge.

The board approved the setting up of the old dugouts on the rec field and voted to permit the Big Little League to buy sand for the base paths. The board will pay for the labor.

Bills for the month were approved.

Members attending were: President Kenneth Dangler, Guile W. Lefever, H. Edgar Riegle, Robert Weaner, Mrs. Jane Wickerham and E. Donald Scott.

FARM-CITY WEEK NOTED

"Our agricultural system is the envy of the whole world and can meet all challenges of the future," Richard Waybright, Emmitsburg R. 2, said in a Farm-City Week talk Monday evening at a joint meeting of the Gettysburg Kiwanis Club and the Business and Professional Women's Club at the Lamp Post Tea Room.

Mr. Waybright described the life of the modern farmer and told of the "agricultural revolution" which has been going on since the early 1940's. He recounted how the farmer has adopted more efficient methods which are producing surpluses. He said agriculture could provide food and materials for an enormous increase in population.

"In spite of the sharp decrease in the number of farmers, 40 per cent of our labor is still in agriculture-connected fields," Waybright said. "The surpluses which are so disturbing to the politicians serve as a strong brake on the rise of prices of consumer goods."

He said the "greatest responsibility" of agriculture today is the conservation of the soil for future generations.

President William Ditzler of the Kiwanis Club presided at the meeting. His club announced plans for a ladies' night meeting next Monday.

UNION SERVICE

A community Thanksgiving service will be held Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock in the Orrtanna Methodist Church with the Rev. Alfred K. Gotwalt, pastor of the Mt. Carmel EUB charge, as the preacher. The Rev. Norman Marden is pastor of the host church.

COURT GIVES WORKHOUSE TERMS TO SIX

Paul M. Scott, 21, Main St., Fairfield, and Keith Neil, 25, Greenstone, were each sentenced to from eight months to three years in the Allegheny County Workhouse this morning in Adams County court.

The two were charged with robbery with accomplice and aggravated assault and battery. The court was told the two had picked up William Socks, 51, Hagerstown, near Emmitsburg, and promised to take him to Frederick. Instead, they drove into Liberty Twp., beat Socks about the head with a jack handle and robbed him of $46. Leaving their victim lying along the road, the two then drove off.

Both pleaded guilty after their arrest.

BAD ACTOR IN JAIL

Leon Gerald Little, 25, Hanover, was sentenced to from 11 to 23 months in the Allegheny County Workhouse by the court this morning.

Little was charged with driving during suspension and operating without the owner's consent and with larceny of a motor vehicle. The charges was a result of the theft of a car from Kaiser Brothers Motors at New Oxford on November 7. Little had been released from the county jail that morning. Later in the day, according to his plea of guilty, he stole the car, went for a ride and finally wrecked the vehicle near Hanover. He was returned to jail that evening after police had been called to the wreck.

LIONS DONATE $100 TO XMAS DECORATIONS

Gettysburg Lions Monday evening voted $100 to the Gettysburg Retail Merchants Association for the street decorations for Christmas at their weekly dinner meeting Monday evening at the VFW home. This equals the sum given by the Lions to the same cause last year.

Other Charity Fund donations announced Monday evening by the Lions included $10 to the Muscular Dystrophy fund, $25 to the Adams County Tuberculosis Society and $10 to a psychologist treating a handicapped child in this county.

Prof. William Barriga, member of the faculty of Gettysburg College who recently returned from a year of study in Madrid, told the Lions: "You only have to spend some time in a police state like Spain to realize how wonderful freedom and America are."

PEOPLE HATE FRANCO

Prof. Barriga showed pictures he had taken in Spain and France and then answered questions from clubmen. He described the extreme poverty of a large part of the Spanish people. He said most of them "hate Franco" and have "no future" in a land where wages are $1 a day for 10 hours, meat is 90 cents a pound and taxes are high.

"I never was able to find anyone who had ever heard anything about a national budget. There is a very tight censorship and the people simply don't know what is going on. Franco moves about under strong military guard and when he travels from the city to his palatial residence 20 miles away the route is lined with police."

The speaker said tourists are welcome and America is very well thought of in Spain. He told the clubmen the country of Spain "moves along on two rails, the church and the government, and if either gets out of line there will be trouble."

President Richard A. Folkenroth presided at the meeting. Meetings of the Boys and Girls, Program, Special Activities and Stewards' committees were held after the general club session. The Lions will not meet next Monday.

going up slightly. Secretary-Treasurer Earl F. Noel, McSherrystown, reported expenditures of the organization during the year were $9,417.90 or $121.80 less than the amount received. Prior balances kept the organization financially sound, but dues are to be increased.

President Guy Tanger presented the top awards. J. Henry Kneller, Gettysburg R. 2, whose herd of 35 cows produced 11,782 pounds of milk and 590 pounds of butterfat per cow, received the award for highest herd average.

Harrison Fair, York Springs R. 1, received the award for greatest improvement. His 29 milk cows produced an average of 10,222 pounds of milk and 415 pounds of butterfat. President Tanger said that record represented an butterfat production increase of 119 pounds per cow.

TO HOLD INSTITUTE

Andrew Martin, Gettysburg R. 5, received the "top individual producer" award for a Holstein which produced 22,224 pounds of milk and 866 pounds of butterfat during the year.

Secretary Noel announced plans of the Holstein Association in coordination with the other breed associations, to hold a breeder institute at Chambersburg March 23.

He also announced that at the sixth annual Pennsylvania Holstein Association convention at Allentown, to which he was a delegate from the Adams County Holstein Association, it was announced that Adams County will receive a pewter pitcher for having the greatest membership gain of any county group. The presentation will be made December 12 at the annual dinner of the county Holstein group in Littlestown. Noel reported on legislation and milk marketing affecting Adams County farmers at the state Holstein Association convention at Allentown.

7 DIRECTORS NAMED

Seven directors were elected by the DHIA members Monday evening. They were Adam Lobough, Aspers R. 1; Guy Tanger, York Springs R. 2, and Oscar Winters, Hanover R. 5, for Circuit No. 1.

Named as directors from Circuit Two were Mervin K. Myers, Littlestown R. 2; Earl Noel, McSherrystown, and Franz Martin, Gettysburg R. 2. Names as director-at-large was Chester Loper, Abbottstown R. 1.

Thomas Murren, Hanover R. 4, vice president of the county association, distributed numerous individual certificates awarded the members of the association for outstanding cows and herds.

in solitary confinement at the jail because of his "uncooperative attitude" and his "loud, boisterous and profane" language.

BURGULARS GET TERMS

Judge W. C. Sheely remarked, "I don't believe you want him, do you, sheriff?" and then imposed the Allegheny County Workhouse sentence on the motor vehicle larceny charge against Little and gave the same sentence to run concurrently on the other charge. Little was also directed to pay the costs.

Charles Oliver Clifford, 38; William Simmons, 30, and Troy Higgins Jr., 30, all of Baltimore, were each sentenced to from three to six months in the Allegheny County Workhouse on burglary and larceny charges arising from the theft of a dozen boxes of spark plugs from the Jay Sheffield service station on Buford Ave. Clifford told the court he knew nothing of the burglary, explaining he had "picked up these two fellows on the road." He said he stopped his car across the street from the service station "to inspect my tires, they were bald." He said he did not see the others bring in the spark plugs and put them under the front seat of his car.

Simons said he had gone into the service station and suddenly decided to take the spark plugs. "It was something I done on a silly impulse," Higgins said he never saw anything taken nor knew about it. All three, however, decided to continue their pleas of guilty and the court handed down the sentence.

GET JAIL TERMS

Harry Jacob Wykoop, 27, Long Island, N. Y., charged with larceny of an Adams County Sanitation Co. vehicle from New Oxford and operating it without the owner's consent, was sentenced to from 60 days to six months in the county jail dating from October 14, when he was first incarcerated.

Frederick B. Lecrone, New Oxford R. 1, charged with driving while his license was suspended, was sentenced to 30 days in jail and ordered to pay the costs.

Philip Joseph Millard, Littlestown, charged with illegal possession of firearms, was sentenced to 30 days in jail from October 8, directed to pay the costs and immediately discharged because he had already served the full time of the sentence. The gun was confiscated.

GIVEN 60 DAYS

Antito Scisco Nikoles, Syracuse, N. Y., charged with receiving stolen money when he accepted some cash from some juveniles who had opened a cash box at a birthday party in Aspers R. D., was sentenced to 60 days in jail from November 6 and ordered to pay the costs.

Stephen Anthony and Larry Miller, both of Hanover, charged with burglary and larceny of inland homes, Hanover R. 4, were given suspended sentences and placed on probation for one year on condition they make restitution of $325.

Clifford S. McFerren, Gettysburg R. 2, brought in on a process for failure to pay promptly on restitution and costs on check forgery charges, was placed on probation for six months during which time he is to pay the remaining amount.

ACTION IN OTHER CASES

Robert D. Jackson, 233 W. High St., also arrested on a process for failing to keep up payments on costs and restitution in a forgery

Upper Communities

Telephone Mrs. John Leeti, Biglerville 8

The meeting of the Upper Adams Young Farmers, originally scheduled for December 8 will be held instead at 7:30 p.m. on December 1 at Biglerville High School. J. Glenn Miller, office manager of the Adams County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, will speak on "Agricultural Conservation Practices." Decision to hold the meeting December 1 instead of December 8 was made because of plans of members for the deer hunting season.

Hunter Is Struck By 31 Pellets

James Leech, 30, R. 1, was treated at the Warner Hospital Saturday morning for gunshot wounds received accidentally while hunting with a party near Seven Stars.

Leech was struck in the face, neck and ears by 31 pellets. Several of the pellets have been removed while others will be removed later, including those near the eyes.

Jim Gifford, Frederick, a member of the hunting party, is reported to have fired the shot which struck Leech in attempting to shoot a quail.

of a check charge, was released and given two months to pay up. The support order of Gale R. Bellamy was reduced to $10 per week by agreement.

Ralph Carbaugh was placed on parole for one year and given three months to pay the costs.

Richard Arnold, Johnstown, was placed on parole for three months and ordered to pay the costs in that time.

DIRECTOR NAMED

Charles Marquette was appointed a school director in Tyrone Twp. on petition of 16 residents of that township, to fill the vacancy caused by Richard D. Winters, moving from the township.

December 12 at 10 a.m. was set as the time for a hearing on the petition of Eleanor Zimmerman, Gettysburg R. D., for an increase in the alimony order handed down by the court August 15.

Approval was given for the Bethel Assembly of God Church of Littlestown to operate as a nonprofit corporation.

Attorney Donald M. Swope was appointed master in the divorce action of Charity Delotha Ritchie versus James Harold Ritchie.

Rosemary Evans (Hartman) Bartlett, Cashtown, was granted a divorce from Jack Howard Bartlett, Baltimore.

FORMER WCC UNITS TALK OVER PLANS

Most of the 23 women's groups included in the former Women's Civic Council attended its reorganization meeting at the YWCA Monday night. Mrs. Howard Hartzell, chairman of the service objective committee of the Soroptimist Club, presided, in an attempt to reactivate the council after a two-year period of inactivity. She introduced Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, who served twice as president of the civic council, and she presided at the meeting.

A review of past activities of the council disclosed that they were active in securing a rail on the post office steps, traffic lights at the railroad at Stratton St., retention of the plot in Lincoln Square, purchase of a copy of the film "Gettysburg" which was presented to the Chamber of Commerce.

They staffed the information booth when it was in Lincoln Square for several years. They conducted a survey of facilities for mass care centers in the borough under Emergency Welfare Services. They handled the registration and entertainment for the wives of the members of the Tank Corp reunions held here. They made surveys of the needs of retarded children, senior groups over 65, women's safety patrol at schools, fluoridation of water, police force, borough activities and parking meters. They conducted a campaign to have the doors removed from junked refrigerators. For many years they worked on the matter of comfort stations and traffic lights.

The women present decided, with the adoption of a less strict constitution and bylaws, the council might continue to serve the community. Representatives will take back a report to the groups they represent and another meeting will be held on the third Monday in January to make a decision on future plans. Mrs. Lee Hartman, the last president of the council, attended the meeting and explained some of the difficulties that led to the cessation of the council's activities.

DEATH

Emory B. Schwartz Sr.
Emory B. Schwartz Sr., 69, Hanover, a retired machinist, died suddenly at 10:45 a.m. while backing his car out of a garage at the rear of his home.

Dr. Mark L. Redding Jr., York County deputy coroner, attributed death to a coronary thrombosis. Mr. Schwartz, who was active in Masonic circles, served as custodian of the Masonic home, Hanover, since his retirement. He was a member of St. Mark's Lutheran Church. His first wife, Mrs. Miriam Adams Schwartz, died in November, 1940.

Surviving, besides his second wife, Mrs. Minnie Zinn Schwartz, are: Four children, Joseph A. Schwartz and Emory B. Schwartz Jr., Hanover; Mrs. Leo Dohm, York, and Mrs. George Main, Blooming Grove; 10 grandchildren and seven stepchildren. Mrs. Glen Weaver, East Berlin R. 2; Lloyd M. Zinn, Dillsburg; Mrs. William Devine, Hanover; Mrs. Paul Houck, Camp Hill; Mrs. Evelyn Nickey, Clearwater, Fla.; John R. Zinn, Hanover, and Mrs. Robert Driesbach, Marilton, N. J.

Funeral services Friday at 2 p.m. at his late home. His pastor, Rev. Edgar D. Ziegler, will officiate. Interment in Mt. Olivet Cemetery. Arrangements are in charge of the Jackson and Womwer Funeral Home, Hanover.

STOCKS UNCERTAIN

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market was uncertain and mixed in fairly active trading early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 20 to 215.10 with the industrials up 20, rails unchanged and utilities up 10.

Most key stocks showed fractional changes. Among a few of the higher-priced or more speculative issues were some wider movers.

NAMES OMITTED

The names of Mrs. Hilda Diehl and Miss Mary Hartman were omitted from the account of the Delta Kappa Gamma teachers who attended the meeting Saturday at the home of Miss Margaret Oellig, Greencastle.

CAR HITS FENCE

Roy Calvin Keefer, 28, Gettysburg R. 2, suffered a cut forehead Saturday at 5 p.m. when his car failed to make a sharp left curve on old Route 16, near Rouzerville, and collided with a guard rail fence. Damage to the car was estimated at $150 and to the fence at $20.

A group of farmers are shown looking over a new 110-bushel spreader which features Cyclon-Action for even shredding and spreading of material.

Farmers in this area are being invited by Yingling's Implement of R. 1, Gettysburg, Pa., phone Littlestown 180, local New Holland dealer, to look over its new Cyclon-Action spreaders.

Yingling's Implement said Cyclon-Action is the performance of New Holland beaters and widespread geared to the best ratio of high speed for maximum shredding and controlled distribution of material.

Yingling's Implement said this makes Techni-Pattern fertilization of field and crops possible.

The uniform distribution of finely shred manure assures rich, fertile seed beds and increased yields after plowing or top dressing.

"THE SWEETEST MEMORY"

As we trod life's roadway... and leave the years behind... we take with us remembrances... stored deep within the mind... these episodes now said and done... fill many lonely hours... and cause the sun to shine again... when sorry skies weep showers... childhood days come back to us... for a while we're young... happy to be with the friends... we were once among... we are well aware these times... never can come back... but there's consolation... in memory's almanac... of all sweet recollections... one stands high above... outlasting all the others is... the memory of love.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath". Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

28TH BIRTHDAY

no supervision — all we knew we obtained from the Girl Scout manual, but we did good work. Our girls progressed in Scouting and we gained lots of recognition in our community.

"I recall when forming the troop we needed a name — it was decided to call it Caroline Codori Girl Scout Troop 2. Caroline Codori was a woman of fine character, a member of our congregation and what was termed an 'outdoor girl'. She was my best friend, and with her we took long hikes, cooked outdoor meals over wood fires (the fireplaces improvised by us), went camping, rode horseback, all in all acted like Girl Scouts long before we were acquainted with Girl Scouting. It was several years after her early death that we organized and we felt it an honor to dedicate our troop to her. Later when our county organization was formed we became Troop 7.

MANY ACTIVITIES

"Our records show many activities to be proud of, especially during World War II. We made baby garments for war relief. Our Scout headquarters was in the little building next to our library. There we took our turn in rolling bandages for the Red Cross. We helped to contribute and fill bags for our soldiers overseas. The bags contained a cake of soap, a tube of tooth paste, tooth brush, playing cards, shaving soap and other useful articles including a pack of chewing gum and one of life-savers.

"But our most outstanding work was making rosaries out of cord, by knotting the cord in place of beads. We received our instructions from an Army chaplain. We undertook to repair rosaries, and on two occasions we received a carton of rosaries, some broken so badly they were beyond repair, but all in all we repaired dozens, and these, together with the cord rosaries, we sent to his chaplain in the South Pacific.

"We made a Christmas dress each year for a child in a foster home. We also made scrap books and sent them to the children at Mont Alto Sanatorium. These are just a few projects over the past years and I know you are continuing to give and help those less fortunate than you.

"During the past five years I have not been active, merely continuing to be a committee member, but I am proud of my experience and the time I devoted to Scouting, and I want to thank the many fine women who have sacrificed and given of their time to make our troop one of the best. Particularly do I want to thank Mrs. Capozzi. Without her interest these many years it would have been a struggle to continue. You now have fine leaders and you little girls are privileged to be Scouts and I know you will be proud to say, 'I was a Girl Scout' and I hope a good

Littlestown

MARK GOLDEN WEDDING DAY

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Snyder, Littlestown R. 1, were honored at a surprise golden wedding anniversary celebration on Sunday beginning at 2 p.m. at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Snyder Jr., Littlestown R. 2, along the White Hall Rd.

Mr. Snyder, a son of the late Noah and Sarah Catherine Baker Snyder, of Reading, and Mrs. Snyder, the former Minnie Florence Goodhart, daughter of Calvin and Anna Allen-Goodhart, Leesburg, were married on Nov. 20, 1910, by the late Rev. R. S. Stair, Lutheran pastor in Dickinson. Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, who have lived on Littlestown R. 1 for the last 36 years, are the parents of 14 children, 12 of whom are living and 11 of whom were in attendance with their families.

They also have 21 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Their children are Mae, who is Mrs. Arthur Jacoby; Gladys, Mrs. Joseph Spangler; Ann, Mrs. Kenneth Crook; Dorothy, Mrs. John Corcoran; Martha, Mrs. Fred Renner; Helen, Mrs. Alvin Heims; Harry, Charles, Edward, Samuel Jr., Eugene and Robert K. Snyder. Gifts, including a money tree, were received by the celebrants. A four-tier wedding cake, topped with a numeral "50" and two gold bells, was baked for the occasion by their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Harry Snyder. The celebrants wore a corsage and lapel boutonniere. He is 82 years old and she is 76 and both are in fairly good health. Mr. Snyder is a retired cigar maker.

Present for the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jacoby, Mr. and Mrs. Merl Bair and sons, Terry and Curt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jacoby, daughters, Susan and Kimberly, Mr. and Mrs. Miltor Jacoby, son, Scott, all of Boiling Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. G. Edward Snyder, daughter, Sandra, York; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spangler, son, Kerry, Spring Grove; Mrs. John Corcoran, and Mrs. William Bechtel, Hanover; Mrs. Fred Renner, daughter, Susan, Fairfield; Mrs. Edward Spence, son, Edward Jr., Fairfield; Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Snyder, daughter, Susan, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crook, children, Ronnie and Vickie, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Orndorff, son, Scott, Mr. and Mrs. William Clouser and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Snyder Jr. and son, Stephen.

Hawaii's official bird, the Hawaiian goose or nene, has been saved from extinction largely through the efforts of rancher Herbert Shipman. There are about 100 of the gray-brown geese in captivity.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times
FIFTY YEARS AGO

Crooked Foot Bill Killed: "Crooked Foot Bill," the big buck which has been eluding hunters on South Mountain for many years, has at last fallen and to J. Lewis Kane, brother of County Commissioner J. Andrew Kane, go the laurels. When the hunters dragged the big animal into camp the arrival of the old king of the mountain was heralded with numerous salutes and there was a general rejoicing. "Billy" had been chased and hunted season after season always to escape with his hide, his proud head and his noble antlers. The trusty rifle of Mr. Kane felled him, however, and his graceful body adorns the camp of the Kane Hunting Club. The big animal weighs exactly two hundred pounds and has twelve points.

Use 1,415,250 Gallons In Town: Almost a million and a half gallons of water were used this summer in sprinkling the streets of Gettysburg, the exact figures being 1,415,250 gallons. The expense of the sprinkling amounted to $768.08 but by careful management the Civil Club is able to announce a balance after paying all expenses. Last year the expenses amounted to $696.14.

An Innovation At Institute: That teachers and instructors together with all others in attendance at the sessions of the Adams County Institute to be held in Brua Chapel next week may not be annoyed by people entering and leaving the building during lectures, County Superintendent H. Milton Roth has decided to introduce an innovation in the shape of special hours for admittance. The doors will be closed at all other times and no one will be allowed to enter the building. Those who are in will be requested to remain until the next period is over and the doors are opened for a few minutes.

Deliberated Entire Night: Jury in the case of Charles B. Stoner and Catherine C. Stoner against the Hanover and McSherrystown Water Company deliberated from half past three Monday afternoon until half past five this morning when a verdict was finally agreed upon. At the opening of Court the Jury returned their finding of $3,500 without interest. The case was an appeal from an award made by viewers.

Officers Elected: At the meeting of the Gettysburg Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Mrs. Walter H. O'Neal was re-elected regent. Other officers were vice regent, Mrs. Calvin Hamilton; secretary, Mrs. Henry M. Hartman; treasurer, Mrs. J. Lawrence Butt; registrar, Miss Margaret Barr; historian, Miss Helen Cope; chaplain, Miss Annie Majors.

Improve Road: A three arch concrete bridge has been built on the road at McCleary's school house in Freedom township, the road being graded on either side. Gravel is being placed on the road between Hammers' Store and Knoxlyn Mill. John Bream, of Highland township, is filling a part of the road from Fairfield to Knoxlyn.

Name To Be Changed: Springs Grove, says the "Ripplet" of that place, now has good assurance that within the next month or before January 1st, the name of the post office will be changed from Spring Forge to Spring Grove. Arrangements have about been perfected between Congressman Lefean, of this district, and Congressman Grist, of Lancaster County, whereby the post office at Spring Grove, Lancaster County, will be discontinued, and that section supplied by rural mail delivery.

Today's Talk

IN SINCERITY
The pungent fragrance of the flower is its evidence of sincerity. One knows at once that it is real. Men and women carry about them an invisible atmosphere which either attracts or repels, builds or destroys, sweetens or sours. Instinctively one feels realness—sincerity.

A baby feels it. A horse does. A dog gets it at once.

There is no way in the world whereby falseness may be concealed. Sincerity looms like day and radiates as do the rays of the sun.

In sincerity are all the precious treasures of life warmly and securely wrapped. And through sincerity are hearts made like pure gold—a thousand fine!

We know sincerity because we see it so often. In eyes that look straight into ours, in the strength and fineness of the handshake, and by the very mode and method of the words that reach our sight and hearing from the heart-rooms of those we trust.

With sincerity ruling the one we love, we can go a million miles or more in the forgiving line. For sincerity, somehow, seems to pivot all else.

It is impossible to be insincere and people not know it.

No one has ever been able to conceal character. Words, deeds, fame, money, social standing—character walks at the head and precedes them all.

Without sincerity, character is like unto a crumbled ruin—desolate and full of tragedy.

Strive — in sincerity.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Books As Guides"

SUCCESS

Success is not in gaining wealth, Nor being famous. No, young man!

Success is not a roll of bills, Nor yet a touring moving van. Success is not a house of stone, A castle, what is it then you ask? Ah, it is doing one thing well.

Success is not in holding power, To lord it o'er your fellow man; Success—the modest little flower—
Achieve it on the Maker's plan. The toiler in the field achieves Success, if he but goes his way And does his duty faithfully And gives the best he has each day.

Success is not a synonym For greatness in the public eye; Unheard of and unheralded The greatest of successes lie, Whatever your modest task may be.

Disdain it not nor try to shun, Perform it well. The secret learn, Success is duty nobly done.

ORDERS PUBLIC PENANCE FOR WOMAN MAYOR

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—The Roman Catholic Woman mayor of San Juan, Felisa de Gauthier, was ordered by her pastor to do public penance before she can receive Communion because of the way she voted Nov. 8.

The Rev. Thomas Maisonet, pastor of San Juan Cathedral, said in an interview between Masses Sunday she must publicly repent by radio, television or newspaper to receive the church sacrament.

The mayor did not attend any of the five Masses at the cathedral Sunday. She was reported to have spent the weekend at her beach cottage in Vega Baja and to have received Communion at its church. She made no public comment on Father Maisonet's demand that she do public penance.

Dona Felisa is a leading member of the Popular Democratic party opposed by Puerto Rico's Roman Catholic bishops as "un-Christian." Gov. Luis Munoz Marin, head of the party, was re-elected by a 58 per cent majority and its members retained control of the legislature, despite the bishops' warning that supporting them would be considered a sin. The mayor has maintained the church's intervention in politics unjustified. She vowed after the election to take Communion at the cathedral without confessing her vote for Munoz Marin, as Father Maisonet insisted was necessary.

SAYS MACBETH MAGNIFICENT, BELAFONTE TOO

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP-TV Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Television Sunday attuned for many of its recent programming sins.

First there was a two-hour version of "Macbeth" on NBC. And then, after a two-hour interval to think it over, there was Harry Belafonte's "New York 19," or CBS. Both were magnificent programs of widely divergent character.

The Hall of Fame version of the Shakespearean tragedy was action-filled and gory, of course but the skillful cast—particularly Maurice Evans and Dame Judith Anderson—extracted every bit of dramatic juice from their rich roles.

ADDED MUCH

Even though the battle sequences seemed a little phony, the authentic Scottish exteriors added much to the presentation. It was a memorable program. My viewing companion, watching as a homework assignment from her high school English course, enjoyed every moment.

Belafonte's music-filled hour had imaginative photography, great humor, exciting dancing and, as to be expected, fine singing. It was also daring to attempt to bring together all the people—of many colors and creeds—living in one Manhattan postal district.

Belafonte himself departed from his usual type of song to do a bright comedy number with songs from "My Fair Lady," and in another imaginative number, romp with a playground full of youngsters. They were two high spots in a program full of them. It will be hard to match soon again two such treats in one evening.

RADIO IN GOOD SHAPE

This is the 40th anniversary of radio, and broadcasting people are proclaiming that it is today in the healthiest state in the four decades since a few hundred people stayed up late listening to the Harding-Cox election returns over KDKA, Pittsburgh.

Today, says the statistics gatherers, there are 156 million working radio sets in this country, including 40 million sets in automobiles. More than 96 per cent of American homes are radio-equipped—and there are radios in 67 per cent of the nation's bedrooms.

Dwight D. Eisenhower isn't even President-emeritus yet, but NBC is already hard at work on a Project 20 report for next season called "The Eisenhower Years."

TV seems to be swinging into a costume craze—after the successful "Scarlet Pimpernel," the Family Classics series is tackling "The Three Musketeers." Show of the Month will be "The Prisoner of Zenda" in January and there are more coming up later on. On second thought, maybe the trend toward period drama just means a shortage of contemporary material.

Bell Telephone Breaks Ground

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The president of the Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania said today that "consolidating company forces in a centralized location is being undertaken in an effort to increase efficiency and to help offset rising costs."

W. D. Gillen added that to achieve this purpose, need of a new headquarters is "clearly indicated by the hard facts of everyday business life."

His remarks were contained in an address prepared for ground breaking ceremonies for construction of Bell's new $15½ million headquarters building which will be 18 stories and provide office space for 2,500 employees.

The building, which will be constructed at 16th and Arch Streets and the Benjamin Franklin Parkway, is scheduled for completion in late 1962.

U. S. FAILS TO LAUNCH SPACE CAPSULE AGAIN

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—An attempt to launch an unmanned space capsule failed Monday.

When the countdown reached zero, an escape tower shot into the sky leaving the Redstone booster rocket and the capsule on the pad.

The 15½-foot tower shot straight up into low-hanging clouds and several seconds later plunged back onto the Cape.

The launching was to have been the first in the Project Mercury Redstone series. The purpose was to test the capsule in a space environment.

If success had been achieved, a chimpanzee was scheduled to ride a Redstone-powered capsule over an identical route within two months. Then if that was successful an astronaut was to take the same trip in February or March in the first U.S. man-in-space attempt.

Monday's capsule was aimed to go 130 miles into space and drop in the Atlantic ocean 220 miles downrange. There was to be no attempt to put the capsule into orbit—the eventual goal of the man-in-space program.

Fifteen minutes after Monday's launch, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced:

"The escape rocket on a Project Mercury space craft ignited prematurely three seconds before a scheduled launching today. The escape tower landed approximately 2,000 feet west of the launch site."

Bucknell Chooses Its Court Leaders

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Bucknell University's 1960-61 basketball team Monday picked two juniors as its co-captains.

They are Dick Kniffin, a guard from Kokomo, Ind., and Joe Steiner, a forward from Punxsutawney, Pa., who led the team last season in rebounds and was runner-up in scoring.

Bucknell opens its 24-game schedule at home against Gettysburg College on Dec. 1.

West Chester In Semifinal Soccer

ST. LOUIS (AP)—St. Louis University's defending NCAA champion Billikens moved into the semi-final round of this season's national soccer playoffs with a 2-0 defeat of a talented University of California team Monday night.

The Bills will meet West Chester, Pa., College on Friday in the semi-final at Brooklyn College. West Chester defeated Brooklyn College, 1-0, last week in a quarter-final.

Raul Castro Attacks U.S. Decision On Ships' Patrol

By ROBERT BERRELL

HAVANA (AP)—Cuban Armed Forces Minister Raul Castro says President Eisenhower's dispatch of U.S. warships to the Caribbean is criminal and "unmasks United States' puppets in Central America."

But the younger brother of Prime Minister Fidel Castro in an angry speech Sunday refrained from rattling Soviet rockets as a threat to the United States.

The softer tone lent weight to speculation that Moscow had nudged Castro to take the Soviet Union out of the Cuban revolution's frontlines to preserve other Soviet irons in Latin America.

Premier Khrushchev himself said recently his rocket offer to defend Cuba was "symbolic."

ATTACKS "IMPERIALISM"

The younger Castro told his audience of petroleum workers that Eisenhower's order of last week, made in response to requests by Guatemala and Nicaragua, represented "a warning by Yankee imperialism to all the peoples of Latin America that it is not going to permit Cuban-style revolutions."

Castro said Cuba supports countries in revolt in Latin America but he denied that Cuba had given any direct military assistance to rebels in the recent uprisings in Guatemala and Nicaragua.

"Our best help to them," he said, "is to preserve the revolution here, which will be a great contribution to the final liberation of all our brothers of Latin America."

U.S. CLERK SHOT

Castro's speech came only hours after the shooting of a young U.S. Embassy clerk by a Cuban army captain during a scuffle outside a Havana nightclub.

Wayne Henderson, 22, of Pasadena, Calif., a communications clerk in the embassy, was seriously wounded Saturday night.

Henderson's condition was described as satisfactory after a 24-hour operation for the removal of the bullet, which entered his body near the hip.

Cuban police said the shooting by Capt. Jorge Robreno was accidental.

British Approve Ford Shares Sale

LONDON (AP)—The British government has approved purchase by the American Ford Motor Co. of the outstanding shares of British Ford.

Chancellor of the Exchequer John Selwyn Lloyd announced this decision in the House of Commons.

American Ford already owns 55 per cent of British Ford and has offered to pay 145 shillings six pence ($20.37) per share for stock now held by British investors. The sale would pump more than $360 million into the British economy.

Final MAC Grid Figures Place Little, Richter Second In Aerial Work

Charlie Bartos of Lafayette; Sam Mudie of Rutgers, and Paul Terhes, Dick Tyrrell and Mickey Melberger of Bucknell are the outstanding offensive performers in the Middle Atlantic Conference' university division, according to final 1960 individual statistics released today.

Bartos carried the ball 142 times for 609 yards, nearly double the total of the next highest back, to earn the individual rushing title.

Terhes, the only man to head two statistical categories, ranks first in passing and in total offense. He led the Bucknell attack with 61 completed passes for 735 yards and eight touchdowns. Terhes added another 103 yards rushing to head the list in total offense with 838 yards.

Rutgers' Mudie, tied for the lead in punting last week with Pape Lukk of Delaware, won the punting title when Lukk's average dropped in last weekend's outing. Mudie punted 15 times against conference opponents for an average of 39.1 yards.

Dick Tyrrell of Bucknell increased his total of passes caught to 19 on Saturday to nail down the pass receiving title. Gettysburg Harry Richter pulled to within one of Tyrrell's mark to finish second, while Ash Ditka of Bucknell finished third with 17.

Melberger of Bucknell scored one touchdown against Delaware last weekend to raise his conference total to 30, highest in the division. Teammate Ash Ditka was second in scoring with 26, while Leigh's Boyd Taylor was third with 24.

The team statistical honors are divided among Rutgers, Bucknell, Lehigh and Temple.

Division champion Rutgers, prominent throughout the statistics, proved to be the highest scoring 11 in the university division. The Scarlet averaged 22.3 points a game in four conference games.

Bucknell, runner-up in the title race, finished first in rushing defense, passing offense, total offense and total defense. The Bison permitted opponents only 79.2 yards a game in rushing and 155 yards through both rushing and passing. At the same time Bucknell completed 66 passes for 823 yards and, in total offense, averaged 296.7 yards a game.

Lehigh punters took the edge in that department, with an average of 37.3 yards a punt.

Temple backs compiled a rushing average of 190.8 yards a game to lead in that department. The Owls also contained opponents' passing efforts to a total of 25 completions for 382 yards, the best defensive mark of any university division team.

Records for Gettysburg follow:

INDIVIDUAL
Rushing, Ed Lucas, third, 307 yards; passing, Earl Little, second, 381 yards, three touchdowns; 24-33; Jack Norwood, eighth, 144 yards, two touchdowns, 11-23; total offense, Little, fifth, 344 yards; Lucas, seventh, 307 yards; punting, Lance Butler, fourth, 331 yards on 15 punts, 35.4 average; pass receiving, Harry Richter, second, 18 for 265 yards and two touchdowns; scoring, Horace Goodman, seventh, two touchdowns and one two-point conversion, 14.

TEAM
Rushing offense, seventh, 523 yards for 104.6 average; rushing defense, sixth, 881 yards for 176 average; passing offense, second, 525 yards and five touchdowns; passing defense, second, 388 yards on 27-63 tries and four touchdowns; total offense, seventh, 1,046 yards for 209.6 average; total defense, sixth, 1,269 yards for 253.8 average; punting, fifth, 29 for 975 yards and 33.6 average; scoring, fourth, 63 for 12.6.

Council To Act On Johnstown Team

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A proposal that would give Johnstown a minor league baseball franchise was scheduled to come up for a vote today before Mayor George R. Walter and city council.

If the proposal passes, Johnstown will be the home of the Class A Eastern League franchise now located in Allentown.

Mayor Walter said he had contacted all but one of the councilmen and all had indicated they favored bringing the team here. Walter met Monday with Joe Buzas, owner of the team, and Bob Erie, general manager.

Buzas said he wants to make the switch because of poor attendance in Allentown. League officials already have approved a proposal by Buzas to move his team out of Allentown.

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Arnold Palmer, the golden boy of professional golf, is still the undisputed money winner so far this year on the tournament trail.

According to figures released by the Professional Golfers Association headquarters, the Ligonier, Pa., slammer has won a total of $77,200.

Palmer played in 24 tournaments, won seven and placed in the top five 15 times.

FORD FRICK TO HEAR BATTLE OVER LA CLUB

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Del Webb and Walter O'Malley, the two titans of the major leagues, were expected to hold the center of the stormy stage today as the beleaguered American League resumed its formidable task of locating a franchise in Los Angeles.

Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees, and O'Malley, head of the Los Angeles Dodgers, arrived here this morning for a summit meeting in Commissioner Ford Frick's office with league presidents Joe Cronin of the American and Warren Giles of the National.

O'Malley made his position quite clear even before he left the West Coast.

"I'm not opposed to the expansion of the American League into Los Angeles," he said, "but not in 1961."

The position of Webb and the American League is just as plain. They are determined to grant a franchise to Los Angeles, and in 1961, O'Malley notwithstanding.

Webb was dispatched to the West Coast with instructions to offer what it considers a "reasonable" settlement to O'Malley for any expenses he might have accrued in bringing the Dodgers there three years ago. O'Malley has said that compensation to the Dodgers by the new American League entry would be the least important of the conditions.

"O'Malley just doesn't want the American League in Los Angeles," said Dolan, the blunt-spoken vice president of the Cleveland Indians. "We made an honest attempt to abide by the commissioner's wishes—to affect some kind of a fair and reasonable settlement with O'Malley. Now it's up to the commissioner to weigh all the evidence and make his decision."

While in Los Angeles, Webb conferred with Kenyon Brown, former stockholder in the Detroit Tigers, on the prospect of Brown heading a syndicate, including hotel owner Conrad Hilton, to take over the Los Angeles franchise. He was expected to make his report at the league meeting.

Charles A. Finley, who last week offered to invest $5 million of his own money if granted the LA franchise, has been receiving support from American League backers.

Palmer Eyes Record For Money Winners

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Arnold Palmer has his eye on the $2,000 top prize money in Mobile's Seratoma Open Golf Tournament for more than one reason.

The Ligonier, Pa., ace needs only about $1,000 more in winnings this year to put him at the head of a list of all-time professional golf money winners. His winnings this year are more than $70,000.

Palmer led the touring pros into Mobile Monday, and several of them tuned up over the par 72 municipal golf course.

The $15,000 tournament begins Thanksgiving Day with the championship to be decided Sunday.

New York Giants Hurt By Injuries

NEW YORK (AP)—The injury-riddled New York football Giants were trying to reconcile themselves today to their latest bad news—the loss of two key players for the remainder of the season.

Halfback Frank Gifford suffered a deep concussion in the National Football League game with the Philadelphia Eagles Sunday and will be sidelined for 30 days. Defensive end Jim Katcavage suffered a collar bone fracture.

Gifford was injured when tackled by Chuck Bednarik after taking a pass.

Veteran Quarterback Charley Conerly didn't play Sunday because of a knee injury, and End Kyr Rote played with a brace protecting a broken bone in his left hand.

Says Pitt May Have Received Bowl Bid

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pitt may have received a bowl bid if it hadn't been for the loss to Penn State Saturday, says Pitt Athletic Director Frank Carver.

"We were a distinct possibility for the Gator Bowl until the time Penn State wrapped up the game with their second touchdown," Carver said Monday.

"The Orange Bowl and the Cotton Bowl still hadn't tapped a team for the New Year's Day games and it's possible we may have been picked."

"When you get right down to it, just about any major team which hasn't lost more than two games could be considered bowl material. That third loss put us out of it, though," he added.

The 14-3 loss was Pitt's third. Of the other seven games, the Panthers won four and tied three.

Phillies To Play 25 Exhibitions

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies announced today they will play 25 exhibition games this spring, including seven with the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates and two with the New York Yankees, American League pennant winners.

The Phillies, who will open spring training Feb. 24 at Clearwater, Fla., with pitchers and catchers reporting, will play 22 of the games in Florida.

Eleven of the games will be played in Jack Russell Stadium, the Phillies home park at Clearwater. Opening game is March 11 against Milwaukee, two weeks after the rest of the club reports.

SOLUTION TO FISHING AREAS AGREED UPON

By BILL GIBSON
HARRISBURG (AP)—Members of a special House committee today reported that a solution has been worked out to halt pollution damage to valuable fishing areas along Spring Creek in Centre County.

Reps. William B. Curwood (D-Luzerne) and Harris G. Breth (D-Clearfield) said Pennsylvania State University has agreed to improve its sewage disposal plant and applied to the General State Authority for $600,000 for the project.

"We think the GSA will act on it favorably at its meeting next Monday," Curwood and Breth said in an interview.

Breth said the efficiency of the plant now is about 87 to 88 per cent. He said the project would bring the efficiency to 95 per cent by adding new equipment and increasing filtration to aid in the removal of detergents.

The committee was set up last June by the House to see what could be done to solve the pollution problem on Spring Creek. The famous trout stream has two State Fish Commission hatcheries and a specially stocked area known as "Fisherman's Paradise."

"The public and fishermen can look for the plant to be operating at a new efficiency by early spring," Breth said.

He said university officials have agreed to expedite the project after the funds are approved by the GSA.

Preparation of plans and specifications for the project is estimated to take about 60 days. After that there would be another 30 days to advertise for bids and from 90 to 120 days for construction.

Curwood said the outline for the agreement was worked out in a meeting of state officials at State College last August.

GOOD COOPERATION
He said the solution was due to the cooperation of such men as Dr. Eric A. Walker, Penn State president; Dr. Charles Wilbur, state health secretary, and Albert M. Day, executive director of the State Fish Commission.

"If another year had gone by, it is entirely probable that the fishermen of Pennsylvania would have lost not only the Fisherman's Paradise but the multimillion-dollar hatcheries at Benner Spring and on Spring Creek below the plant," Breth said.

"The committee was under considerable pressure to get an agreeable solution because of the time factor," he said.

Breth said detergents are the basic problem and no easy and feasible way is known to completely remove them from sewage.

Both he and Curwood said engineers had said they thought the project would solve the problem.

The representatives said they were pleased that, in addition to saving good fishing for Pennsylvania anglers, a solution to the problem will restore property values along the creek and be of direct value to farmers involved.

FOUR BOWL CARDS NOT COMPLETED

By JACK CLARK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Speculation, rather than college football teams, filled most of the available postseason bowl spots today even after Penn State and Baylor announced their willingness to participate in the Liberty and Gator Bowls, respectively.

This pair Monday joined Washington, Arkansas and Missouri, which over the weekend, announced bowl acceptances. Four of the nine major bowls have yet to fill a spot and it is unlikely that there will be much more action in that direction until after Saturday's games when many of the eligibles wind up the regular 1960 season.

The newly organized Gotham Bowl in New York may not even get off the ground. Syracuse, the defending national and Cotton Bowl champion, and a key to a good "home draw" by the Gotham committee, withdrew from all post-season consideration Monday.

The committee still hopes to land the winner of the Army-Navy game.

The list of available narrowed down to about 10, which include: Alabama (7-1-1), Tennessee (5-2-2), Mississippi (8-0-1), Minnesota and Iowa, both 8-1, Duke, Florida, Texas and Rice, all 7-2, and Oregon 7-2-1.

Iowa and Minnesota, Big Ten co-champions, must be eliminated if not invited to the Rose Bowl. Conference rules prohibit other bowl play.

PRESENT LINEUP
Here is the present bowl lineup, including the speculation:

ROSE—Washington (9-1), defending Big Five and Rose Bowl champ, is in. "It's just about narrowed down to Navy, Iowa and Minnesota, with some others under consideration," Huskies coach Jim Owens said Monday night. Navy gave Washington its only loss, 15-14, this season.

SUGAR—No berths filled. Mississippi is favored to win the Southeastern Conference title, with a victory Saturday over Mississippi State and the SEC champ usually is the host. Florida and Alabama may slip in if Ole Miss falters. The visitor may be Rice if the Owls beat Baylor and lead the Southwest Conference title.

COTTON—Arkansas (8-2) is the host. Oregon, Alabama and Tennessee have been named as possibilities.

MISSOURI IS BACK
ORANGE—Missouri (9-1), which lost to Georgia 10-0 last New Year's Day, is back. Duke, the Atlantic Coast Conference king, may be the top choice now that Syracuse has declined.

GATOR—Baylor (7-2) is in, and Florida was invited last week but put off a decision until after its final game against Miami this weekend. If Ole Miss wins the SEC title, the Gators will accept.

LIBERTY—Penn State (6-3) is back to defend its title. Texas, Tennessee and Alabama, which lost 7-0 in the inaugural last year, are possibilities.

BLUEBONNET—No team has been named, but Texas seems the logical "home" choice. Again Tennessee and Alabama seem to be the choice, depending on who's left in the battle with the Liberty Bowl.

Tennessee Tech accepted a berth in the Tangerine Bowl Monday night.

SCHEFFING IN DANGEROUS JOB

DETROIT (AP)—Bob Scheffing steps into one of baseball's most dangerous managerial jobs in Detroit with no illusions he'll be an overnight miracle man.

The Tigers hired him Monday as their eighth manager since 1952, knowing it'll take time—perhaps several years—before they can challenge for a pennant.

Tiger President John Fetzer spoke of how well Scheffing handles young players. Fetzer said he is patient enough to await their development.

NO MIRACLE MAN
He broke a long-standing club policy of one-year contracts and signed Scheffing through 1962.

Scheffing, 45, was manager of the Chicago Cubs for three seasons, 1957-59. The turnover on the Cubs is about as quick as with Detroit, and second-division finishes are as frequent.

"I don't feel I'm qualified to talk about the Tigers' problems right now," said Scheffing, who will receive a reported $35,000 a year.

"I'm no miracle man, but I've always wanted to manage a young team and I'm sure it'll improve."

Adams-Franklin Cage Loop To Play 90 Games; Opens With Single Game Dec. 15

The opening game of the Adams-Franklin Scholastic Basketball League will be held Thursday, December 15, when Fairfield plays at Scotland. All other teams of the 10-school circuit will inaugurate their schedules on December 16.

Last year Greencastle copped the league title, defeating Littleton, Adams County Division title, 62-60.

The complete schedule follows:

December 15 — Fairfield at Scotland.

December 16 — St. Thomas at Buchanan, Fannett-Metal at New Oxford, Bermudian at Littleton, Greencastle at Quincy.

December 20 — Fairfield at Greencastle, New Oxford at Bermudian, Littleton at Fannett-Metal, Scotland at Quincy, Bermudian at St. Thomas.

January 3 — St. Thomas at Fairfield, Bermudian at New Oxford, Littleton at Greencastle, Quincy at Fannett-Metal.

January 4 — Buchanan at Scotland.

GOPHERS BACK IN 1ST PLACE AFTER 1 WEEK

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Minnesota leapt back into first place in the weekly Associated Press football rankings today as the fight for the national college championship headed into a photo finish.

The coveted title will be decided on the results of next week's final AP poll of the season.

Minnesota barely edged out Iowa and Mississippi for the No. 1 spot. The Gophers finished with 42 1/2 points to 41 1/2 for second-place Iowa, Mississippi, in third place, had 398 points.

WASHINGTON FOURTH
Washington, the Big Five champion and host team in the Rose Bowl, moved up one notch to fourth with 249 points, while Missouri, the leader last week, tumbled to fifth with 241 points after a 23-7 beating from Kansas.

Arkansas, the Cotton Bowl host, was sixth, followed by Navy, Auburn, Ohio State and Kansas.

Minnesota and Iowa have finished their seasons, each with an 8-1 record and tied for the Big Ten championship.

OLE MISS UNDEFEATED
But third-place Mississippi, the only team in the top 10 that hasn't been defeated, still has one more game. The Rebels, who boast an 8-0-1 record, play Mississippi State in their finale Saturday.

The leaders, with first-place votes in parentheses (points on a 10-9-8 etc. basis):

1. Minnesota (13 1/2) 424 1/2
2. Iowa (17 1/2) 417 1/2
3. Mississippi (13) 398
4. Washington (2) 249
5. Missouri 241
6. Arkansas 228
7. Navy 188
8. Auburn (1) 149 1/2
9. Ohio State 117
10. Kansas 48

Others receiving votes: Duke 36, Rice 34, Yale 30 1/2, Michigan State 19, New Mexico State 9, Penn State 9, Syracuse 6, Florida 6, Texas 3, Purdue 2, Oregon 2, Michigan 2, Oregon State 1.

Yale received one first-place vote.

Coach Quite Upset About Whole Affair

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Coach John McKay says he was so nervous he couldn't give his University of Southern California footballers a pep talk before they played cross-town rival UCLA.

Instead his assistants made pregame speeches. McKay told a football writers luncheon Monday.

The talks might have helped — Southern Cal upset heavily favored UCLA 17-6 Saturday.

What did the assistants say? McKay doesn't know. He said he was too nervous to remember.

STATE ACCEPTS LIBERTY BOWL DEC. 17 BID

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Penn State's football team had a bowl date circled on its calendar today. The next question is: who will be its opponent?

Dr. Eric A. Walker, university president, Monday night accepted the offer from the Liberty Bowl for the Nittany Lions to play host again in Philadelphia Stadium for the Dec. 17 game.

Walker's action came after the team, its coaches and a committee of the Athletic Advisory Board voted in favor of the bid.

But the Lions probably won't know their opponents until this weekend, with six teams reported in the running: Oregon, Baylor, Rice, Florida, Texas and Duke.

All except Baylor are among the top 20 teams in the latest Associated Press poll. Baylor meets Rice this Saturday. Each is 7-2.

The fourth quarter rally that carried State to a 14-3 victory over Pitt last Saturday clinched the Liberty Bowl bid.

4TH BOWL APPEARANCE
State, which also was host in last year's inaugural of the bowl, finished the season 6-3, including four in a row over West Virginia, Maryland, Holy Cross and Pitt. It beat Boston University in its opener, lost to Missouri, beat Army, and lost to Illinois and Syracuse in close games before starting its late season rush.

It will be Penn State's fourth bowl appearance.

The 1922 team, with a 6-3-1 record, went into the 1923 Rose Bowl against USC and lost, 14-3. The unbeaten-untied 1947 team (9-0) made the 1948 Cotton Bowl against SMU and wound up with a 13-1 tie.

Last year, State (8-2) beat Alabama, 7-0.

Coach Rip Engle and Athletic Director Ernie McCoy were happy over the invitation extended by the bowl Selection Committee.

The silver-haired Engle called it "a very great compliment." McCoy said he was "very enthusiastic about it" and added it would be a great experience for the club.

Bud Dudley, president of the Liberty Bowl, said Penn State was picked over Syracuse because the Lions "came along real strong and beat Pitt and Army, both of whom defeated Syracuse."

PHILIPPINES' GAMBLE WITH YOUTH FAILS

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — The Philippines' bold gamble on youth failed today and America zoomed to a 2-0 lead in the Davis Cup interzone semifinals on smashing singles victories by Barry MacKay and Earl Buchholz.

First MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, crushed 25-year-old Eddie Dungo, playing his first Davis Cup match 6-1, 6-2, 6-0. Then Buchholz of St. Louis, added to the rout by humbling 23-year-old Johnny Jose, 5-7, 6-1, 6-0, 6-2.

Jose seized the opening set from Buchholz on some sparkling play. But he lacked the experience to go all the way.

GAMBLED ON YOUTH
The two top-ranked Filipino aces, Raymundo Deyro, 34, and Felisimo Ampon, 40, were benched when the nonplaying Philippine captain, Al Del Rio, decided to gamble with his youngsters.

The Americans now need only one more victory, which likely will come Wednesday when Dennis Ralston, Bakersfield, Calif., and Chuck McKinley, St. Louis, play Jose and Dungo in doubles, to advance to the interzone final against Italy's European champions. The last two singles against the Philippines will be played Thursday.

The survivors of the interzone series will attempt to wrest the big tennis trophy from Australia in the challenge round at Sydney, Dec. 26-28.

Fight Results
Chicago — Virgil Atkins, St. Louis, stopped Carl Hubbard, Philadelphia, (5) (welterweights).

New York — Babe Simmons, 169, New York, stopped Bartolo Soni, 176, Dominican Republic (7).

Philadelphia — Ike White, 157, Philadelphia, outpointed Haywood Johnson, 157 1/2, Philadelphia (8).

Providence, R. I. — Gene Fommire, 126, Revere, Mass., outpointed Paddy Read, 126, Providence (12); Willie Greene, 160, Providence, outpointed Eddie Connors, 153, Sharon, Mass. (12).

Las Vegas — Billy Besmanoff, 198 1/2, Seattle, outpointed Howard King, 200, Las Vegas (10).

San Francisco — Bobby Sanders, 144 1/2, San Francisco, outpointed Willie Morton, 150 1/2, San Jose, Calif. (10).

EAGLES BEAT GIANTS, BIG STEP FOR FLAG

By JACK CLARK
NEW YORK (AP) — The cross bones and skull, symbol of the fabled Flying Dutchman, today resembled the usually benign countenance of Philadelphia Eagles quarterback Norm (Dutch) Van Brocklin in the eyes of the New York Giants.

The reason: Van Brocklin is leading a band of determined birds that Sunday took a long step in pirating away from the Giants hopes for a third straight National Football League Eastern Conference title. The Dutchman, ably assisted by fellow marauders Jim Carr, Chuck Bednarik, Tommy McDonald and Bobby Walston, put on a furious second half attack that grabbed a

Kneller Guernseys Set Butterfat Production Record For Their Second Consecutive Year

J. Henry Kneller, Gettysburg R. 5, demonstrates the milking process on one of his registered Guernseys. Kneller, the past testing year, had the best herd average for butterfat production the second year in a row in Adams County.

When asked why their Guernseys have the best herd average for butterfat production for the second year in a row, Mrs. J. Henry Kneller, Gettysburg R. 5, replied, "Well, I guess it's because we wash their tails once a month."

That's exactly what the Knellers were doing when they were recently visited by a Gettysburg Times reporter. Mrs. Kneller said, "It helps make the cows comfortable which goes a long way to producing record marks when it comes to butterfat."

The butterfat percentage for more than 32 registered Guernseys during the past testing year was 5 per cent. The cows were contented enough to give an average of 11,782 pounds of milk and 590 pounds of butterfat, the highest in the county. Kneller said that there really isn't too much difference in the way they raise their herd. They use good management, good feed, get rid of the poor producers and try to keep the cows contented. It seems as though psychology can work on milk givers as well as human beings.

BEATS OLD RECORD

The 590 per cow-butterfat average record is way above their last year's record of the 547-pound average which they set with 32 cows. Kneller has plans of getting rid of all cows that don't produce at least 10,000 pounds of milk and 450 pounds of butterfat after four years. He said it's common sense to get rid of a good cow to receive a better one. The menu for the Guernseys is quite varied. A year-round diet includes soy beans, sorghum silage, mixed hay, clover, orchard grass, alfalfa and a homemade dairy ration which is made by a commercial company which adds ingredients to corn and wheat raised on the Kneller farm.

Kneller says he averages about six new cows per year. After the cow has reached its peak in milk production, he is quick to get rid of it and replaces a freshened animal in its place. Presently there are 19 or 20 cows in his herd that produced over 12,000 pounds of milk and 16 cows that produced over 600 pounds of butterfat during a 305-day period.

Average Production Per Cow In Adams County Shows Big Increase In Last 30 Years

The cows of 30 years ago could not touch their great-grandchildren of today when it comes to milk and butterfat production. The records of the Adams County Dairy Herd Improvement Association show average production per cow has increased 25½ per cent as far as milk is concerned and by almost 44 per cent in butterfat during the past three decades.

According to the records the average cow in the DHIA today is producing annually a ton more milk and 132 pounds more butterfat than her maternal ancestors in the herds of 1930.

This last year the 1,235 cows on test produced better than five tons of milk per cow—the average milk production was 10,795 pounds. That amount was 2,197 pounds more than the average per cow in the years 1928 to 1932 when the average milk production per animal was 8,598.

SHOW BIG INCREASE

In the butter fat department the bovines of the county in 1928-32 averaged 302 pounds per cow. Last year the amount was 434 pounds per cow, or 132 pounds per animal better than 30 years ago.

The cows — many of them the same ones that set new records in the 1959 lactations — outdid themselves for a second straight year during 1960. The average milk production per cow moved up from 10,395 pounds to 10,795, an increase of 400 pounds of milk per cow over the prior year. Butterfat production at the same time increased during the one year period from 417 pounds to 434 pounds—an increase of 17 pounds per cow.

The animals in the DHIA herds are the top producers in the county—the records are kept in order to remove any animal that might fall below peak production. But even the "run of the pasture" cow in the county is bettering her production.

State crop reporting figures for 1958 and 1959 show a production increase of more than 6,000,000 pounds of milk in the county in one year, and show an average increase in production of about 300 pounds per cow during the one year period. The 1958 figures showed 76,360,000 pounds of milk produced in the county. The 1959 figures were 83,300,000 pounds. The reporting service figure for average milk production per cow, for all herds, was 6,940 pounds in 1959 compared to 6,640 pounds in 1958.

Federal census figures show the value of the milk and cream produced by the county going up and the number of farms selling milk coming down. In 1959 the value of milk and cream sold in the county was listed as $3,217,785 compared to $2,515,259 in 1954—the date of the prior census. Farms reporting milk sales dropped from 739 in 1954 to 572 in 1959. At the same time the number of milk cows in the county went up from 11,453 to 11,679.

STEADY INCREASE

Success of the Adams County Dairy Herd Improvement Association, now in its 33rd year, is shown not only in the tremendous increase in production by herds of members during the period, but also in the tremendous difference, 3,455 pounds per year, between the average cow's production in the county and the average for those in the herds of the DHIA members.

The county DHIA — originally known as the Cow Testing Association — came into existence Sunday, April 29, 1927, when a group met at the office of then County Agent R. E. Underwood in the court house and established an organization, named John C. Bream as temporary president and R. M. Spangler secretary and adopted a "constitution and bylaws." The first directors were A. B. C. Williams and Edgar H. Lee of York Springs; Earl Cashman and John Bair of New Oxford; R. M. Spangler, Edgar Weaver and John C.

Brandons' "Cookie" Is Rated Champion Butterfat Producer In Adams County

"Cookie," an 11-year-old registered Holstein owned by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brandon, Gettysburg R. 2, seems to be acknowledging the fact that she is the champion lifetime butterfat producer in Adams County.

Ever since Braelawn Emperor Cookie started giving milk and producing butterfat nine years, two months and 27 days ago, she's been doing it at record rate. "Cookie," a registered Holstein owned by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brandon and son, Lyndale, Gettysburg R. 2, has the highest living lifetime butterfat production record in Adams County.

And whether she knows it or not, "Cookie" continues to improve the record every time she gives milk. It was less than two the champion butterfat producer when another Holstein, owned by J. Allen Spangler, Aspers R. 1, had to be killed. Cookie is one of the 43 registered Holsteins in the Brandon herd that give milk and roam on the 125-acre farm along the Fairfield Road.

While visiting Cookie at her stall, a Gettysburg Times reporter discovered that she has already given 104,402 pounds of milk and 4,446 pounds of butterfat. Her best lactation was in 1958, when she gave 18,426 pounds of milk for a 365-day period plus the 856 pounds of butterfat for the same period.

That same year netted Mr. Brandon and family a profit of $746, not including labor costs. He says materials cost about $447 per year.

Brandon credits Cookie's top winning performance to modern methods of dairying, good heredity breeding, and making the cows comfortable. A typical day's meal for Cookie includes about 30 pounds of corn silage, 15 pounds of hay and 14 pounds of commercial grain with added proteins.

Bream, Gettysburg; Harry Brown and Hiran Miller, Fairfield, and Charles Hartman and C. L. Thomas of Biglerville.

The first tester, J. H. Phillips, reporting at the first annual meeting, held July 6, 1928, at the home of the president, Harry E. Brown, at Fairfield, said average production was 8,133 pounds of milk and 281.7 pounds of butterfat.

Reports of the meetings during the years showed regular growth, and generally some problems.

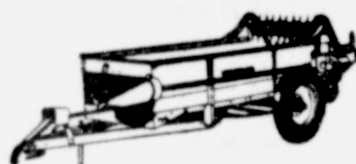

Many of the meetings were given over to talks by Pennsylvania State University Extension specialists who gave details on better management programs to produce better herds. Various testers served the organization. The most difficult time was during World War II and immediately thereafter. In fact in 1946 the year's records were not summarized because of the difficulty of obtaining testers.

Edgar Weaver, Joseph A. Stoner, H. Russell Grove and Guy Tanger are among the men who have headed the organization over the years.

Growth of the organization has been showed by the increase in cows on test throughout the year from 217 back in 1928 to 1,235 at the present time. One of the problems that has beset the organization from time to time has been "how to provide for additional members who wish to join the organization?"

"Orndorff Lisa" Is First County Bred Cow To Receive Official Rating Of 'Excellent'

Loy Orndorff, Littlestown R. 2, is shown with "Orndorff Lisa," a member of his Brown Swiss herd which this year received the "excellent" rating, top rating that can be given a cow. It is believed to be the first county-bred animal to achieve the honor. (Times photo)

When the report came back it listed "Orndorff Lisa" as "excellent."

That was a day of rejoicing for Loy N. Orndorff, Littlestown R. 2, whose small herd of Brown Swiss have been setting record after record in their class.

It also symbolized a trend that during the last several years has moved Adams County dairy herd production to a point where it is becoming "something to reckon" in dairy cattle circles.

Assistant County Agent John Naugle explained, "Lisa is not the first cow to receive an 'excellent' rating from her breed—but the others were cows purchased and brought to the county. Here we have an 'excellent' bred in the county and brought to excellence here."

Naugle used the success Orndorff is having with his Brown Swiss as a sample of "what has been happening generally throughout the county. This year's production rating for the county is going to put it in the top ten among counties in the state. This year is better than last year when we were 16th. Next year, if all goes well our herds should show continued betterment. We have a number of men emphasizing breeding. We have very many who are doing a good job of 'breeding, feeding and weeding' as it is called, to produce top animals.

"As a result if we continue to improve as we have, in a few years we will be finding dairymen from other counties and other states coming here for foundation stock. That will be the biggest change in years. Generally we have been going elsewhere for good stock. At the moment we have some recognition as doing a good job. If it continues as it has the last few years, we will be recognized throughout the area for top herds."

Orndorff Lisa 317928" had previously achieved national recognition in the Brown Swiss Association, receiving the "Bell Ringer" award as a senior yearling in 1957. "Lisa" is a great-granddaughter of "Jane of Vernon" called the "mother of the Brown Swiss" herds of today. "Jane of Vernon" set a record of one year's production of 23,569 pounds of milk and 1,075.6 pounds of butterfat. She also was the mother of "Jane's Royal of Vernon," one of the top bulls in the breed and "grandfather" of "Lisa." "Jane of Vernon" was grand champion at the 1936 National Dairy Show.

IS RUGGED BREED
Largest and most rugged of dairy breeds, the Brown Swiss is a native of Switzerland and so Orndorff has real Swiss bells for his cows. The bells are a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Orndorff's children and were made in Switzerland in 1878—only a few years after the first Brown Swiss came to America in 1869.

The American Brown Swiss animals total in the 100,000s now, but all descend from a total of 25 bulls and 160 females imported into the U. S. from Switzerland over a period of years.

Rugged and phlegmatic, the Brown Swiss are the slowest of dairy breeds to mature, but live and produce much longer than other breeds. They also are the oldest known dairy cattle breed and Julius Caesar described them in his commentaries. Bones found in ruins in Switzerland dating back to 4,000 B.C. resemble closely the skeletons of the modern Brown Swiss.

As the home of Holstein herds. A project conceived by the directors of the Adams County Holstein Association may become standard practice throughout the nation. For some years the National Holstein Association has made its public should be made aware of members to designate their farms

The champion milk producer in Adams County, "Daisy" is shown eating a portion of the 20 pounds of hay per day average she consumes. Feeding her hay is Andrew Martin, Gettysburg R. 2, owner of the champion.

A seven-year-old Holstein named "Daisy" is the champion milk producer of Adams County for the second year in a row, according to the Adams County Dairy Herd Improvement Association records.

"Daisy" is one of 29 milkers belonging to Andrew Martin, Gettysburg, R. 5. In addition to milk production, she also claims the record for the highest butterfat production in Adams County the past testing year.

A record breaking 22,224 pounds was the result of the total effort put forth by Daisy to establish herself another mark. This compares with the 20,776 pounds produced the preceding year.

Her butterfat production this year for 305 days was 886 pounds, 117 more pounds than her record of last year.

Martin feeds Daisy the same food as the other cows in his herd, 35 pounds of silage, 20 pounds of hay and about 20 pounds of chop per day. He says he likes to feed his cows more grain than average because they seem to produce better. He is convinced that good management pays off eventually when it comes to adding up profit at the end of the year. Any chore to make the cows comfortable is not too big, says Martin. According to his wife, he's been known to crawl out of bed in the middle of the night to investigate a "bawling cow."

Attractive Signs Identify Adams County Holstein Herds; May Use Through U.S.

other breeds. They also are the oldest known dairy cattle breed and Julius Caesar described them in his commentaries. Bones found in ruins in Switzerland dating back to 4,000 B.C. resemble closely the skeletons of the modern Brown Swiss.

A project conceived by the directors of the Adams County Holstein Association may become standard practice throughout the nation.

For some years the National Holstein Association has made its public should be made aware of members to designate their farms as the home of Holstein herds. At a recent meeting of directors of the county's association, pleased that their organization this year had the largest increase in membership of any county group in the state, thought the general public should be made aware of the place the Holstein has in the county. As a result they purchased home farm signs from the national organization—and put them up as county association signs at various entrances to the county.

DIRECTORS ERECT SIGNS

Now the national organization has secured photographs of the signs—as a suggestion for other county Holstein organizations.

The following directors erected the signs: Robert Gitt, Littlestown R. 2, the president; George Stam- baugh, Aspers R. 2, vice president; Glenn Sterner, Gettysburg R. 1, secretary-treasurer; Earl Noel, McSherrytown, state director; John Keiser, East Berlin R. 1; Henricus L. Pennings, New Oxford R. 2; J. Allen Spangler, Aspers R. 1; Herbert Kehr, Littlestown R. 1, and Adam Lobaugh, Aspers R. 1.

The Holstein breeders point out that of the ten high cows in milk production in the county this year all were Holsteins, and of the 10 high cows in butterfat, eight, including the first five, were Holsteins.

While proud of their animals' records none of the members of the association could give an exact reason why their breed of animal, the Holstein-Friesian, should be known in the U. S. as Holstein while in Europe and most other countries the last half of the name is preferred and the breed is generally designated as Friesian.

The largest of the breeds of cattle, the American Holsteins are nearly all black and white, while in Holland, red and white Holsteins are common. The breed is at least 2,000-years-old in Holland where it began. The first Holsteins came to the U. S. with the Dutch settlers in 1621 and 1625. Through the years 7,750 Holsteins were imported into the U. S. from which sprang the several million Holsteins now on farms throughout the U. S.

CYCLIST KILLED

BELLEFONTE, Pa. (AP) — A car struck and killed an elderly cyclist along Route 873, one mile south of Millheim, Centre County, Monday night.

State Trooper William Smith said the victim, John Rider, 65, Coburn, had been riding without any lights. He was struck from the rear by a car driven by Lawrence R. Tate, 36, also of Coburn.

Littlestown TWO THANKS SERVICES ON WEDNESDAY

The annual community Thanksgiving service will be held on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in Centenary Methodist Church. The Thanksgiving message will be brought by the Rev. G. Howard Koons, pastor of Christ United Church of Christ. The host pastor, the Rev. William R. Jones, will preside, and the evening's offering will go to Church World Service. The public is invited to attend the service which is being sponsored by the local ministerium.

Grace Lutheran Church, Two Taverns and St. Luke's Union Church, near White Hall, will hold the annual combined Thanksgiving service on Wednesday in Grace Church at 7:30 p.m. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Mark A. Heiney, pastor of the host church, and the liturgist will be the Rev. George Shultz Jr., pastor of St. Luke's United Church of Christ.

Boy Scout Troop 84 will have its weekly meeting on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Scout room at the community building on E. King St.

YOUTH GROUP MEETS

The Youth Fellowship of Redeemer's United Church of Christ met on Sunday evening when Jane Basehoar, leader, introduced the topic "Evaluating the Atom Bomb." During the business, plans were made to have a Thanksgiving social on Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the church social hall. At the close of the session, square dance-ing was enjoyed by the group. The next regular meeting of the young people will be held Sunday, December 4, at 6:30 p.m.

Officials of the Littlestown Chamber of Commerce have announced that Santa Claus will arrive in the community on Saturday, December 3, at 3 p.m. Santa will treat and greet the children of town on the parking lot in the rear of St. Aloysius School.

Jack H. Crouse and sons, Robert, Edward, Charles and Jack, W. King St. Extd., enjoyed a hunting trip to Potter County over the weekend when Mr. Crouse shot a 22-lb. wild turkey.

The Friendship Circle Class arranged a Thanksgiving program in the Adult Department of St. Paul's Lutheran Church School on Sunday. Miss Mary Zinn, a former school teacher and presently a Sunday School teacher in St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Hanover, was the guest speaker and presented a talk on "Thankfulness." Two accordion solos, "The Lost Chord" and "The Lord's Prayer," were played by Barbara Schneider, of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, York. A solo, "Thanks Be to God," was sung by Mrs. Clinton O. Sentz, accompanied by Miss Donna Rabenstine. Mrs. Mahlon Bucher is the class teacher, and Mrs. Helen Sleds is the class president.

H. Dean Stover, a member of the Littlestown High School faculty, showed slide pictures of a trip to Montana and spoke at the meeting of the Senior High Luther League of St. Paul's Church, held on Sunday evening at the church. The members of the Luther of St. John's Church were guests. Paul Bowman was in charge of devotions. One new member, Richard Hornberger, was welcomed. Donna Rabenstine was appointed to be leader for the meeting next Sunday at 6:30 p.m. At the conclusion of business, refreshments were served by Jill Weikert and Betty Morelock. Dancing was then enjoyed by the group.

Freda Arentz was leader at the meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of Christ United Church of Christ held on Sunday evening. The program was as follows: Two hymns by the group; Scripture, Beatrice Arentz; prayer, Richard Berwager; group hymn; topic, "Thank God For My Country," discussed by the pastor, the Rev. G. Howard Koons; business in charge of the vice president, Dorothy Gerrick, when it was decided to present the annual Christmas program at the Adams County Home, Sunday, December 18, at 2 p.m.; group hymn; Lord's Prayer and C. E. benediction in unison. Dorothy Gerrick was named to be leader for the meeting next Sunday at 7 p.m.

Star Players To Compete In Game

TOWN WILL PLAY HOST TO FOREIGNERS

PINE GROVE, Pa. (AP)—Around 1:30 Wednesday afternoon a chartered bus will roll up in front of the pleasant home of banker Horace Hess and let off students from Pennsylvania State University.

They are not just ordinary students. They are nationals of Thailand, Indonesia, Philippine Islands, Japan, India, United Arab Republic, Ghana, Liberia, Pakistan and Canada.

Their arrival heralds the start of a Thanksgiving observance that is fast becoming tradition in the the Mid-Atlantic Conference and several independent schools east of the Mississippi River.

Loyal Park of Edinboro State, Jim Miller of Detroit and Al DeLuca of St. Vincent College will coach the East team.

West coaches are Ava Parseghian and Alex Agase of Northwestern and Joe McMullen of Akron.

TOO SHARE BLESSINGS

Waiting for the bus' arrival will be fraternal-minded neighbors of the Hess family, all imbued with the common desire of sharing their blessings during the Thanksgiving holidays.

It all began in 1955. Banker Hess credits his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Speidel, with first getting the inspiration of doing something to relieve the campus tedium of international students during a long holiday weekend.

Penn State has a campus population of around 200 foreign students. The services of Miss Rebecca Doerner of the Office of International Student Affairs were enlisted to select nominees for the

"Pine Grove Thanksgiving."

PLAN DEVELOPED

Out of that grew a systematized arrangement sponsored jointly by the Rotary Club and the Women's Club of Pine Grove. The 50-year-old Hess, himself the father of three children, has been the guiding hand in the unusual project.

He is particularly proud of the fact that the Thanksgiving weekend doesn't cost the students a cent.

Wednesday's contingent will include 21 students, plus a few wives and children. With arrival of the bus, they will disperse to the homes to which they have been previously assigned. During the holidays there will be a square dance in their honor, and tours of the small manufacturing plants and big farms on which the Pine

CORRECTS IDEAS

The Hess home alone will entertain four of the guests.

How has it worked out?

"Well," surmises Hess, "I sometimes think we probably get more out of it than the students get."

a bomb but no powder was detected Monday to the office of Dick Clark, star of television's American Bandstand.

Clark was not there. His secretary began undoing the brown paper covering the package, but stopped when she saw wires and copper tubing through an opening in the cigar box.

Detectives hurried to the WFIL-TV studio, from which Clark does his nationally televised (ABC) show each afternoon. It was quickly ascertained that the bomb was harmless. Clark was told what had happened after he had finished his show.

The cigar box was mailed from New York, probably by a crank, police said. They were trying to find the sender.

Reapportionment Of State's Legislative Districts May Fail, Judging By The Record

Editor's note: Legislative reapportionment will be a much-discussed subject in the 1961 Pennsylvania Legislature. The ABC's of reapportionment are discussed in a three-part series, including a little of the historical background.)

By FRED WALTERS
HARRISBURG (AP)—Time has passed off another decade. For the 145th General Assembly of Pennsylvania meeting in 1961 that means it inherits the constitutional duty to reapportion the senatorial and representative districts in line with the 1960 census.

History suggests it will fail. In the last 86 years—from the constitution of 1874—there has been only one real reapportionment of the Senate and that was in 1906. The 1921 senatorial realignment only reshuffled two districts in Philadelphia. There has been no senatorial reapportionment act since.

FEW SENATORIAL CHANGES
The House was reapportioned in 1953, 1921, 1906 and 1887. The 1906 acts were passed at a special session called for that purpose by Gov. Samuel Pennypacker.

The 50 senatorial districts as they exist today are pretty much those laid out in 1874. Nineteen are the same; 26 retain the nucleus of the original district.

For example, the old 25th District—Susquehanna and Wayne counties—was broken up in 1906. Susquehanna going to the 23rd District (Bradford and Wyoming) and Wayne to the 14th (Carbon, Monroe-Pike).

MANY REASONS
A separate district was created in the special session for Lackawanna, which had not become a separate county until 1878, when it was severed from Luzerne County. Two senators served the combined county and Luzerne kept both after the reapportionment.

There have been many reasons for the legislature's inability to follow Article II, Section 18, of the state constitution requiring redistricting after every census.

One important reason is the fact the rural counties, which have so long dominated the legislature, have been reluctant to submit to an act that will weaken their representation in the legislature in favor of the faster-growing urban areas.

NEW ELEMENT NOW
The preliminary 1960 census figures suggest, however, the emergence of a new force between the traditional rural-urban forces in the legislature: "The 'suburban' district."

Few cities have gained in population the last decade, although the counties in which they are located generally have shown an increase. Pittsburgh and Allegheny County is a typical example. The census figures show Allegheny County—which now has six seats—entitled to a seventh Senate seat, but Pittsburgh's share dropping from three and part of a fourth to less than three.

Similarly, Philadelphia's big suburban counties—Delaware, Montgomery and Bucks—which now have one senator each—have enough people to warrant three more senators: One each in Delaware and Montgomery, plus a third divided among the three (a split that is unlikely to take place, however.)

PHILA. WOULD LOSE
Westmoreland County has almost enough people to warrant another district, and two other Allegheny County neighbors—Beaver and Washington—have enough to claim separate senators.

These gains in the suburban counties would be—except for the one seat in Pittsburgh—exclusive of the loss of the rural counties.

In the House, on the other hand, Philadelphia would stand to lose five seats under a literal interpretation of the constitution, while its suburbs would gain seven. Pittsburgh would lose three seats to suburban Allegheny County.

Beaver and Westmoreland could each gain one seat.

NO STEAMROLLER
The fact the legislature is so evenly divided—110-10 in the House, for the Democrats, and 25-25 in the Senate (with Democrats holding organizational control)—rules out either party steamrolling reapportionment through.

"It will have to be done without regard to partisan advantage," commented House Speaker H. G. Andrews, D-Cambria, in an interview.

The preliminary census indicates that any net gain in the House seats would be by the Republicans.

In any Senate redistricting, the net gain would depend upon how the counties are put together, and that, of course, is the crux of the political battle over reapportionment.

LONDON (AP)—The British Broadcasting Corp. said today it was negotiating with Vatican officials for Pope John XXIII to appear on its television screens on Dec. 1.

MADRAS, India (AP)—Ninety-mile-an-hour winds swept Madras City Sunday. Several persons are reported dead. Plane services were canceled and road and rail transport suspended.

2 Men From Same Town Are Killed
LEBANON, Pa. (AP)—Two men from the same Lebanon County community traveling in opposite directions along their respective automobiles were killed instantly in a collision of their cars Sunday.

State police said the accident occurred about 12:15 a. m. one mile north of Mount Gretna on the Cabin Point-Colebrook road.

Dead were Russell L. Weaver Jr., 22, and George H. Kercher, 51, married and the father of one daughter. Weaver was unmarried. Both men resided at Colebrook.

Both drivers were wedged in the wreckage so firmly that it took more than an hour to extricate the bodies.

Friends said Weaver's father was killed in a truck accident Jan. 24, 1958, not far from the scene of Sunday's accident.

VASSAR GRAD HAS BECOME A FILM PRODUCER

By JOY MILLER
NEW YORK (AP)—When she was 9 Roberta Hodes didn't dream of being a glamorous movie star. She wanted to be a film producer.

After 20 years she still does and her chances are looking up.

Now finishing a stint as associate producer of "Girl of the Night" based on Dr. Harold Greenwald's best selling sociopsychanalytic study, "The Call Girl," Roberta is about to prove her flexibility. Her next chore: associate producer of Albert Payson Terhune's "Lad, a Dog."

For anyone who wonders why a pretty hazel-eyed brunette with a good figure wants to work behind the cameras instead of in front, she has an answer.

EYES NEW YORK STORY
"It's what I've always wanted to do. And when you get on the production side, eventually you have to do your own picture."

Roberta would like to make a film about New York—"A story that's never been done before, the whole microcosm of what's going on, the various cultures, the conflicts, the challenges."

She has already done her basic research by being born and raised here.

After graduation from Vassar, where she majored in drama, she took a course in film workmanship at the New School, supporting herself by mimeographing plays for class.

Other students included Harry Belafonte, Rod Steiger, Rod Sterling and some Israelis who talked her into going to Israel.

WORKED ON FARM
In Israel she worked on a farm from 1948-50 and got her first real film experience by making a documentary on the people arriving there from all over the world.

"Then I went to Hollywood with $25 to win my fame and fortune," she says wryly. "I got a job at a studio as a reader."

"I got me inside a studio. I wanted to be a script girl, but they were using mostly men. In 1950-51 television hit hard and there was general panic. I came back to New York where the film industry was just starting up. In 1953 I got a big break as script girl for 'On the Waterfront'."

After this basic technical training, she was able to land the job of production manager for "The Last Mile" starring Mickey Rooney. Producer Max Rosenberg kept her on as his associate producer when he made "Girl of the Night."

State Trooper Is Shot To Death
DALLAS, Pa. (AP)—A 45-year-old state policeman was shot and killed Sunday, allegedly in an argument with his son over school marks.

The trooper, Kurt Schweiss, died outside the kitchen of his home. State police said the son, Kenneth, 17, told them he fired a .38 caliber revolver at his father as the parent was about to enter the house through the kitchen door.

Apparently, three of the six bullets hit Schweiss, a trooper for 22 years, who was stationed at Wyoming barracks. Mrs. Schweiss was in the kitchen preparing dinner at the time.

In addition to the son and his wife, Schweiss, is survived by three daughters.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Some Philadelphia physicians are refusing to perform drivers' physical examinations because of possible legal liability. The Keystone Automobile Club says.

But William F. Irwin, executive director of the County Medical Society, denied Saturday that doctors have refused to administer the tests. He said he understands some are concerned about what their liability would be if a driver they examined was involved in an accident.

U. S. ATTACHE OUSTED BY REDS
MOSCOW (AP)—Maj. Irving T. McDonald, assistant U.S. air attache, was ordered Monday to leave the Soviet Union on the charge of conduct unbecoming a military attache.

The Russians accused McDonald of engaging in activities considered here as espionage.

He is the second U.S. air attache expelled from the Soviet Union in recent months.

Minister Counsellor Edward I. Freers was called to the Foreign Office this afternoon and told that McDonald must leave as soon as possible.

Here it was supposed that the expulsion order was in retaliation for the arrest of Igor Y. Melekh, chief of the Russian translation section of the United Nations, in New York Aug. 27. Melekh is accused of espionage.

STRIKE ENDS; FARES GO UP
LOS ANGELES (AP)—The transit strike that snarled Los Angeles' traffic and jammed its freeways is over, but the commuter's worries aren't.

The 400,000 persons who daily ride the Metropolitan Transit Authority's buses and streetcars may have to pick up the tab—in the form of increased fares—as a result of the settlement.

For five days the commuters—spread over a four-county area the size of Maryland and Delaware—had no bus or streetcar transportation because of a strike by 900 MTA mechanics.

Sunday both sides—the MTA, a public agency, and the Amalgamated Transportation Union—agreed to a new 15-month contract which provides higher wages, improved working conditions and prospects for a pension plan.

The union voted 451 to 73 to accept the agreement. It will raise the pay of top-scale mechanics from $2.61 an hour to $3 an hour by July 2. The union said the raises will range from 46 cents to 64 cents an hour in wages and other benefits.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Washington's baseball baby has been provided with guardians of broad experience in Mickey Vernon and Ed Doherty.

The signing of Vernon as field manager and Doherty as general manager gave American League expansion plans a boost. But the other half of the double play—a move into Los Angeles—is still to be completed.

Club owners and league officials meet in New York Tuesday to award the Los Angeles franchise. They put off action last week after storm signals were raised by commissioner Ford Frick.

Frick hinted that the American League had better do business with Walter O'Malley, owner of the National League's Los Angeles Dodgers, before moving on to his lush acres. As a result, Del Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees, is in Los Angeles to talk with O'Malley.

GREED LEADS TO SOLVING MARCH MURDER

READING, Pa. (AP)—A detective Monday accused a man of "carrying out a so-called perfect murder until he got greedy for money which put police on his trail."

Reading Detective Douglas Palm said Edwin O. Gockley, 49, a painter, interior decorator and operator of a tennis club in suburban Temple, Pa., would be charged with murder in the deaths of a wealthy divorcee and her handyman. They had been missing since March.

Gockley Saturday led police to a shallow unmarked grave at the tennis club which yielded the bodies of Mrs. Mabel L. Klein, 64, and Clement J. Smith, 41.

BADLY DECOMPOSED
Palm quoted him as saying that Smith came to the tennis club one March night with Mrs. Klein's body in his car and told him the woman had died of natural causes.

Gockley was quoted as saying that he and Smith argued over how to dispose of the body and became involved in a struggle over a shotgun. The shotgun went off, Palm said, and struck Smith. Palm quoted Gockley as saying that he didn't want to see Smith suffer so he shot him again.

Palm said both of the bodies were badly decomposed. He said an autopsy would be performed today on the body of Mrs. Klein to determine if she died of natural causes.

Palm said "Gockley had been milking her (Mrs. Klein's) accounts by forging checks and also using her."

BEGAN FORGERIES
The detective said the case may have been forgotten and Mrs. Klein and the man presumed missing but that Gockley upset his "so-called perfect murder" when he began forging more checks and writing letters purported to be from the woman in the South.

After Mrs. Klein was last seen alive in March, her friends began receiving letters that she had married an Arthur Smith in Georgia and intended to remain in the South.

Palm said a friend brought it to the attention of police that a letter told of Mrs. Klein's marriage. Palm said something seemed unusual, that it wasn't like her to stay away with those checks constantly turning up. He said police checked vital statistics bureaus and found there had been no marriage.

ADMITTED FORGERIES
Palm said Gockley admitted forging the letters and mailing them, later collecting rent monies from Mrs. Klein's property

VERNON GIVES WASHINGTON EXPERIENCE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Washington's baseball baby has been provided with guardians of broad experience in Mickey Vernon and Ed Doherty.

The signing of Vernon as field manager and Doherty as general manager gave American League expansion plans a boost. But the other half of the double play—a move into Los Angeles—is still to be completed.

Club owners and league officials meet in New York Tuesday to award the Los Angeles franchise. They put off action last week after storm signals were raised by commissioner Ford Frick.

Frick hinted that the American League had better do business with Walter O'Malley, owner of the National League's Los Angeles Dodgers, before moving on to his lush acres. As a result, Del Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees, is in Los Angeles to talk with O'Malley.

From a public relations standpoint, owners of the new Washington club scored heavily in their appointment of Vernon as field manager.

The lean, quiet Vernon, 42, was an idol of the fans when he won batting titles and played first base for the Washington Senators.

He wanted to return to Washington and he wanted to manage a major league team. E. R. (Pete) Quesada, head of the group that obtained the franchise after the old Senators transferred to Minneapolis-St. Paul, gave him the chance.

Quesada, the federal aviation administrator, announced Vernon had received a two-year contract as field manager and Doherty, president of the American Association, had signed for the same period as general manager.

U.S. Opens Economic Talks With Bonn
BONN, Germany (AP)—The United States and West Germany opened economic talks Monday amid indications they ran into difficulties right at the outset.

The first session lasted an hour longer than scheduled.

The United States is pressing prosperous West Germany to contribute more toward foreign aid and Western defense costs to help reduce the drain on U.S. dollar and gold reserves.

The initial session began at 9 a.m. It was to last just 30 minutes. The session broke up at 10:30.

The negotiators were serious expressions as they posed silently for photographs.

through a power of attorney and forging more checks.

Palm said the continued activity made police suspicious and they had the letters and other documents checked by the FBI. The FBI reported they were forged, touching off an investigation which led to Gockley. Palm said the clincher came when police found a wallet belonging to the woman in Gockley's home.

Police described Gockley as a "ladies' man." They said he had served time in prison.

Officers added that many documents in Mrs. Klein's handwriting were found at the tennis club and it was from there that Gockley was able to forge her signature and handwriting. They said they relieved some documents were written by Mrs. Klein under coercion.

Palm said as far as police can determine Gockley made several trips to the South to mail the letters, then returned each time.

MANY TURKEYS AVAILABLE IN LOCAL STORES

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There are plenty of turkeys in supermarkets and neighborhood groceries to grace Thanksgiving Day tables.

Big birds over 20 pounds are in particular abundance. But there are not as many birds under eight pounds as last year.

Stocks of turkeys in cold storage had reached a record total of 278 million pounds on Nov. 1. The previous record was 255 million pounds on Nov. 1, 1958.

It is difficult to determine whether you will pay more or less for your turkey this year than a year ago. Birds were sold in more weight categories last year than this year.

ROASTS AND HAMS

For those who aren't fanciers of turkey meat, many stores are featuring rib roasts and hams.

Shrimp and lobster tails are among fish specialties.

The traditional Thanksgiving cranberry is in abundant supply. A record crop of 131 million pounds has been harvested.

Housewives have a large variety of vegetables for selection to

14 Unbeaten And Untied Grid Teams

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Yale and New Mexico state were the only major teams left as the list of the nation's unbeaten, untied college football team dwindled to 14 over the weekend.

Ohio University, the nation's top ranking small college team, and Arkansas Tech top the list with 10 victories each. Both have completed their season. New Mexico State, Humboldt State, Lenoir Rhyne and Southern Univ. of Louisiana, each with nine victories, are the only members of the select group which have not completed their seasons.

round out holiday menus.

New arrivals on the market include kumquats, Boston and romaine lettuce, Italian type peppers from Florida, anise, domestic cabbage and big Boston lettuce from California.

Best vegetable buys are broccoli, Brussels sprouts, cabbage, cauliflower, Chinese cabbage, cucumbers, Florida endive and escarole, mushrooms, medium yellow onions, turnips, rutabagas, eastern potatoes, radishes, yellow straight-neck squash, curly parsley, napa gold and orange and yellow Jersey sweet potatoes.

California anise, Florida okra, white broiler onions, green peas and tomatoes are expensive.

Best fruit buys are chestnuts, cranberries, emperor grapes, Cortland and McIntosh apples and small pomegranates.

On the expensive side are tangerines and melons.

JAP PREMIER FOUND FAITH IN BUDDHISM

By JOHN RODERICK

TOKYO (AP) — Hayato Ikeda, the victor in Japan's eighth post-war election, found faith and renewed self confidence in deep personal suffering.

The 60-year-old prime minister, whose pro-U.S. policies received a mandate from the voters, was the son of a wealthy sake manufacturer who spent his youth as a university student at Kyoto drinking deeply of the pleasures of that famed geisha capital.

Like many sons of the rich, he chose government service as a career. He might have remained an obscure official if a rare disease of the skin had not forced him to resign his post in the tax office in Utsunomiya in 1932.

Dressed in the white clothes of a pilgrim, and accompanied by his devout mother, he made a long and painful tour of Buddhist temples on the island of Shikoku in search of the spiritual cure modern medicine could not provide.

FAITH IN BUDDHISM

Five years later he emerged well and healed. He attributed it to his faith in Buddhism, a faith that continues deep today.

He returned to ordinary life a serious, purposeful man who bore little resemblance to the playboy of his youth.

He became prime minister July 14, succeeding Nobusuke Kishi, who was forced to resign following

Youth Arraigned In Dad's Murder

DALLAS, Pa. (AP) — Kenneth Schweiss, 17, has been arraigned on a murder charge in the fatal shooting of his father, Kurt, 45, a state policeman, in what police described as an aftermath of a quarrel over the boy's school marks.

Kenneth was held without bail Monday by Justice of the Peace Leonard Harvey. He was returned to the Juvenile Section of Luzerne County Prison in Wilkes-Barre.

State police said the boy fired a .38 caliber revolver at his father Sunday as the state policeman was about to enter a kitchen door of their home.

READING, Pa. (AP) — A complete and official count by the Berks County Election Board shows Vice President Richard M. Nixon carried the county by 11,171 votes in the Nov. 8 presidential election.

The Election Board reported Monday that Nixon had 61,743 votes and Democratic President-elect John F. Kennedy 50,572.

his successful but bitterly opposed fight to push through the new defense treaty with the United States.

Recognizing that Kishi aroused hostility among the leftists and the general population by a general attitude of rigidity, Ikeda set about proving he could and would compromise if the opposition Socialists cooperated.

This approach won him new friends and helped channel away much of the resentment felt against the Conservatives under Kishi's helm.

MITCH MILLER GETS WEEKLY FRIDAY SHOW

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — There's a pleasant little success story in NBC's announcement that "Sing Along with Mitch" will soon alternate with the Telephone Hour as a regular Friday night program.

Mitch Miller, the bearded man-about-music, had a fierce and long fight getting his first "Sing Along" special broadcast last spring.

Miller had reason to believe in his idea—a musical program consisting of old, well-known songs presented so that the home audiences could sing or hum along with the performers. He had made a series of "Sing Along" records and they were selling like mad, and not just to the teenage crowd either.

SOME DOUBTS

But the network had some doubts that such a simple, unsophisticated program would go over.

Came the day, however, and the hour-long special not only pulled a healthy audience, but resulted in an avalanche of mail from the approving public. Starting Jan. 27, it will have a regular berth on the NBC channel: a clear victory for the letter-writing public.

There is a touch of irony in the probable choice of presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty to succeed John Daly as

2nd Car Stolen From Same Spot

PARIS, Ky. (AP) — Texas Baseball League President Richard (Dick) Butler of San Antonio, has been struck out again by a car thief.

In August Butler flew from Texas to Cincinnati, rented a car, and drove here to visit his mother, Mrs. Richard Butler.

He parked the car in front of his mother's house. Next morning it was gone.

Sunday he came home again, in his own 1960 car. He parked it in the same spot.

Monday morning it too was gone.

ABC's chief of news and special events, Hagerty and Daly have been cronies since their days as reporters.

MUCH CONFUSION

In the spring of 1959, Hagerty was chosen to award the TV news Emmy. The press secretary, with the nation's eyes upon him, opened the sealed envelope, broke into a pleased smile and announced enthusiastically: "It is my special pleasure to award this Emmy for news to my good friend, John Charles Daly." He paused, suddenly looked very flustered and then said, "I mean, to John F. Day of CBS."

There has been considerable confusion over the similarity of names of the two network news executives. Presumably, however, Hagerty will bone up a bit more on broadcasting personnel before he joins the industry.

TIMBERLANDS IN 16 STATES ARE DISCUSSED

HARRISBURG (AP) — Forest industry representatives from 16 states plan more discussions here today in their appraisal of the potential for developing northeast timberlands.

The conferees are attending a two-day meeting of the Northeast Loggers' Association.

A federal spokesman said Monday there was tremendous potential for industrial expansion in forests of the eastern United States.

Ralph W. Marquis, director of the U. S. Forest Service's Northeast Experimental Station, said the potential stems from 60 years of conservation and fire protection.

TO DOUBLE HARVEST

He said eastern areas now cut only about one-third of the timber that can be harvested under modern forestry methods without damaging forest potential for recreation, wildlife and scenery.

Maurice K. Goddard, Pennsylvania secretary of forests and waters, reported that the state hopes to double the amount of wood being taken out of its forests in the next two years.

Goddard said there now are 10 major industrial firms interested in locating in Pennsylvania so that they can capitalize on the state's forest resources.

SEEK NEW MARKETS

Evan B. Alderfer, economic advisor to the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia, agreed that the East has tremendous potential for developing its forest industry.

"It has more trees growing than it cuts each year; we have an abundance of labor, and we have no shortage of capital—all the essential ingredients of economic opportunity," he asserted.

Expansion will depend on the development of new markets, technological changes in manufacturing products derived from wood, he added.

DIAPER IS A DIAMOND

SALIDA, Colo. (AP) — A Salida man, babysitting while his wife was out, found this note in the bathtub:

"Place diaper in position of a baseball diamond, with you at bat; fold second base over home plate; place baby on pitcher's mound, then pin first base and third base to home plate—and you have scored again."

Foreigners Have Sufficient U.S. Money To Ruin American Financial System, But Won't

Editor's Note—President Eisenhower last week ordered emergency action to stem the steady flow of American gold into foreign hands. Frank Cormier, experienced AP Treasury Department reporter and financial writer, assesses the scope of the problem in the first of three articles on the gold situation.

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nations of Western Europe now have it in their power to rock the American financial system any day in the week.

All that stands between crisis and stability is an intangible called "confidence"—confidence that the U.S. dollar will remain "as good as gold."

Foreign governments and their citizens own about $18 billion of Uncle Sam's money. Most of these dollars are owned by Western Europeans and are deposited or invested in the United States.

Theoretically, all could be used to buy American gold.

HAVE $18 BILLION

If all were used for this purpose, Uncle Sam's supply of bullion would be wiped out. There is only $18 billion of gold in the government's coffers.

Such a disaster is virtually impossible.

For one thing, foreigners do so much business with the United States that they couldn't afford to exchange all their dollars for gold.

Furthermore, to do so would wreck their own finances because the United States is the cornerstone of the free world economy.

This doesn't mean, however, that the current anxiety over Uncle Sam's persistent loss of gold is misplaced. The simple fact is that foreigners could cause a major crisis merely by exchanging a relatively small proportion of their dollars for gold in the span of a few days.

PURCHASE COULD HURT
If foreigners bought $1 billion of U.S. gold in a single week, this would be taken as a vote of "no confidence" in the dollar. Perhaps even a lesser amount would turn the tide.

It is this possibility which last week prompted President Eisenhower to impose unprecedented restrictions on spending abroad under the military and foreign aid programs. His aim was to lessen the number of dollars moving into foreign hands; dollars that could be used to buy American gold.

Since July 1, foreigners have been buying American gold at the rate of $3.8 billion a year. Since Aug. 1, they have been ordering at an annual pace of $4.1 billion. Since Sept. 1, the rate has risen to $4.7 billion. Since Oct. 1, the flow of bullion has hit a spectacular annual rate of $5.9 billion.

MUST KEEP $11.5
Compare this buying with the remaining U.S. gold supply: $18 billion of which $11.5 billion must, by law, remain in government hands as backing for part of the money supply.

Some believe the President's actions were too severe—that the cure will hurt more than the disease. However, the fact that such action was taken by a "lame duck" administration suggests the urgency with which the problem is viewed by Eisenhower and his secretary of the Treasury, Robert B. Anderson.

Why couldn't they have waited nine more weeks for the inauguration of President-elect John F. Kennedy?

Some believe the President's actions were too severe—that the cure will hurt more than the disease. However, the fact that such
